Amir sends cable of greetings to Turkish president

President Sheikh Hamdan bin Zayed Al Nahyan, Crown Prince of Abu Dhabi and Deputy Supreme Commander of the Armed Forces, telegraphed a cable of greetings to President Recep Tayyip Erdogan on the occasion of the inauguration of the Ministry of Family and Social Policies of the Republic of Turkey. The cable, which was earlier telegraphed to President Erdogan, conveyed the Emir’s wishes for the achievement of further progress and success of the friendly relations between the two countries. The Emir, in his message also wished all the Turkish people a success in strengthening the friendly relations and in achieving prosperity and progress. The Emir also wished for permanent peace and stability for the region.

Local farm products sale begins at yards

The sale of local agricultural produce began yesterday at Al Mazrouah yard in the city of Al Khaleej Al Arabi. The Agricultural Ministry’s Agriculture Department said the sale of products offered at these yards would “individually affect the sustainability of farms.”

How to sell farm produce

The yards will operate from 8am until 6pm on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The turnover at each yard will be determined by the Ministry of Municipality and Environment’s Quality Control Department. Ahmed al-Yafei from the Ministry of Municipality and Environment’s Agriculture Department said the quality of products offered at these yards would “individually affect the sustainability of farms.”

In their ninth season, the yards will operate from 8am until 6pm from Tuesday. Holiday and Saturday will be included in the yard sale.

Most of the products produced will be used to detect pesticide residues in the produce and conduct tests at all stages of the produce, the yard’s management said.

“Advanced technology will be used to detect pesticide residues in the produce before displaying them in the yard, al-Yafei said.

In addition, the Ministry is working in co-operation with the Ministry of Public Health to examine all residues of pesticides in vegetables at all stages._CHILDREN, what, what, what to do?”

Angela Suarez, a chef who has always sought new recipes in her culinary repertoire, last week said, “I can’t stand it, said Madrid resident Angela Suarez, a chef who has always sought new recipes in her culinary repertoire.

Spain enters six-month state of emergency to tackle pandemic

Spain endured a state of emergency until late May, allowing regional legal backing to enforce curfews and restrict travel to and contain rampant Covid-19 contagions. The country’s latest Covid-19 spikes, with over 1,000 infections.

In response to the pandemic has often been hampered by political wrangling, but the government this time managed to gather enough votes for parliament to back extending the national two-week decree until May 9.

“This worried about the consequences, though, in a country that is already suffering through the worst recession since the 1939 civil war. “It seems too much to ask, people can’t stand it,” said Madrid resident Angela Suarez, a chef who has always sought new recipes in her culinary repertoire.

“President Donald Trump and rival Joe Biden on Tuesday rel- eased supporters yesterday in their closely fought state of Florida, highlighting their contrasting ap- proaches to the rampant coronavirus pandemic.

Trump and Biden host study-in-concert rallies

Trump has repeatedly dismissed the wave and public health experts predict it will be unavoidable. “Could you imagine losing to this wave and public health experts predict it will be unavoidable.”

In brief

Trump has repeatedly dismissed the wave and public health experts predict it will be unavoidable. }
Qatar delivers medical aid to Pakistan

Qatar’s participation yesterday in the virtual ministerial meeting of the Group of 77 and China on maintaining a low-carbon development path, striking a balance between economic growth and the protection of the environment in reducing the spread of Covid-19 pandemic.

Qatar was represented in the meeting by H.E. the Minister of State for Foreign Affairs, His Excellency Sheikh Ahmad bin Mohammed al-Thani.

Sheikh Saoud bin Abdulrahman al-Thani handed over the medical aid to Executive Director of Pakistan Air Force Hospital (Islamabad) Major General Safdar Abbas. The ambassador expressed his thanks and appreciation to Qatar’s Embassy in Pakistan for its support efforts to contain the spread of the coronavirus (Covid-19) pandemic.

Sheikh Saoud bin Abdulrahman al-Thani handed over the medical aid to Executive Director of Pakistan Air Force Hospital (Islamabad) Major General Safdar Abbas.

The Qatar embassy in Pakistan yesterday delivered medical aid from Qatar Charity to Pakistan to support efforts to contain the spread of the coronavirus (Covid-19) pandemic. The 10 persons who received medical aid in Pakistan were all females.

The Qatari embassy in Pakistan yesterday delivered medical aid from Qatar Charity to Pakistan to support efforts to contain the spread of the coronavirus (Covid-19) pandemic. The 10 persons who received medical aid in Pakistan were all females.

The Qatar embassy in Pakistan yesterday delivered medical aid from Qatar Charity to Pakistan to support efforts to contain the spread of the coronavirus (Covid-19) pandemic. The 10 persons who received medical aid in Pakistan were all females.

The Qatar embassy in Pakistan yesterday delivered medical aid from Qatar Charity to Pakistan to support efforts to contain the spread of the coronavirus (Covid-19) pandemic. The 10 persons who received medical aid in Pakistan were all females.

The Qatar embassy in Pakistan yesterday delivered medical aid from Qatar Charity to Pakistan to support efforts to contain the spread of the coronavirus (Covid-19) pandemic. The 10 persons who received medical aid in Pakistan were all females.

The Qatar embassy in Pakistan yesterday delivered medical aid from Qatar Charity to Pakistan to support efforts to contain the spread of the coronavirus (Covid-19) pandemic. The 10 persons who received medical aid in Pakistan were all females.

The Qatar embassy in Pakistan yesterday delivered medical aid from Qatar Charity to Pakistan to support efforts to contain the spread of the coronavirus (Covid-19) pandemic. The 10 persons who received medical aid in Pakistan were all females.

The Qatar embassy in Pakistan yesterday delivered medical aid from Qatar Charity to Pakistan to support efforts to contain the spread of the coronavirus (Covid-19) pandemic. The 10 persons who received medical aid in Pakistan were all females.

The Qatar embassy in Pakistan yesterday delivered medical aid from Qatar Charity to Pakistan to support efforts to contain the spread of the coronavirus (Covid-19) pandemic. The 10 persons who received medical aid in Pakistan were all females.

The Qatar embassy in Pakistan yesterday delivered medical aid from Qatar Charity to Pakistan to support efforts to contain the spread of the coronavirus (Covid-19) pandemic. The 10 persons who received medical aid in Pakistan were all females.

The Qatar embassy in Pakistan yesterday delivered medical aid from Qatar Charity to Pakistan to support efforts to contain the spread of the coronavirus (Covid-19) pandemic. The 10 persons who received medical aid in Pakistan were all females.

The Qatar embassy in Pakistan yesterday delivered medical aid from Qatar Charity to Pakistan to support efforts to contain the spread of the coronavirus (Covid-19) pandemic. The 10 persons who received medical aid in Pakistan were all females.

The Qatar embassy in Pakistan yesterday delivered medical aid from Qatar Charity to Pakistan to support efforts to contain the spread of the coronavirus (Covid-19) pandemic. The 10 persons who received medical aid in Pakistan were all females.

The Qatar embassy in Pakistan yesterday delivered medical aid from Qatar Charity to Pakistan to support efforts to contain the spread of the coronavirus (Covid-19) pandemic. The 10 persons who received medical aid in Pakistan were all females.

The Qatar embassy in Pakistan yesterday delivered medical aid from Qatar Charity to Pakistan to support efforts to contain the spread of the coronavirus (Covid-19) pandemic. The 10 persons who received medical aid in Pakistan were all females.

The Qatar embassy in Pakistan yesterday delivered medical aid from Qatar Charity to Pakistan to support efforts to contain the spread of the coronavirus (Covid-19) pandemic. The 10 persons who received medical aid in Pakistan were all females.

The Qatar embassy in Pakistan yesterday delivered medical aid from Qatar Charity to Pakistan to support efforts to contain the spread of the coronavirus (Covid-19) pandemic. The 10 persons who received medical aid in Pakistan were all females.

The Qatar embassy in Pakistan yesterday delivered medical aid from Qatar Charity to Pakistan to support efforts to contain the spread of the coronavirus (Covid-19) pandemic. The 10 persons who received medical aid in Pakistan were all females.
It’s Prime Minister and Minister of Interior Sheikh Khalid bin Khalifa bin Abdulaziz al-Thani yesterday attended the graduation of the third batch of the Thunderbolt Commandos training course of the Police College. He is the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Defence and the Amir of the Amiri Guard of Qatar, Ministry of Interior (MOI) and Internal Security Force (Lekhwiya). The graduation ceremony was attended by senior officials from the Ministry of Interior, Ministry of Education and Higher Education and various universities. The training program requires participants to undergo six weeks and up to 36 hours training under the supervision of 40 instructors. The graduation ceremony began by showcasing various tactical, shooting and prilling skills and a documentary about the course was screened at the end of the event. The Hub is also focused on sharing its expertise and best practices with other universities, government institutions and organizations. The Hub is also going to extend its networks in Central Asia and also to develop strong relations with the other countries in the region. It’s main areas of activity are focused on partnership and disseminate information regarding the CPP’s research and activities. The Hub has a memorandum of understanding (MoU) concluded with the Astana Civil Service Hub.

The graduation ceremony was attended by senior officials from the Ministry of Interior, Ministry of Education and Higher Education and various universities. The training program requires participants to undergo six weeks and up to 36 hours training under the supervision of 40 instructors. The graduation ceremony began by showcasing various tactical, shooting and prilling skills and a documentary about the course was screened at the end of the event. The Hub is also focused on sharing its expertise and best practices with other universities, government institutions and organizations. The Hub is also going to extend its networks in Central Asia and also to develop strong relations with the other countries in the region. It’s main areas of activity are focused on partnership and disseminate information regarding the CPP’s research and activities. The Hub has a memorandum of understanding (MoU) concluded with the Astana Civil Service Hub.

The graduation ceremony was attended by senior officials from the Ministry of Interior, Ministry of Education and Higher Education and various universities. The training program requires participants to undergo six weeks and up to 36 hours training under the supervision of 40 instructors. The graduation ceremony began by showcasing various tactical, shooting and prilling skills and a documentary about the course was screened at the end of the event. The Hub is also focused on sharing its expertise and best practices with other universities, government institutions and organizations. The Hub is also going to extend its networks in Central Asia and also to develop strong relations with the other countries in the region. It’s main areas of activity are focused on partnership and disseminate information regarding the CPP’s research and activities. The Hub has a memorandum of understanding (MoU) concluded with the Astana Civil Service Hub.

The graduation ceremony was attended by senior officials from the Ministry of Interior, Ministry of Education and Higher Education and various universities. The training program requires participants to undergo six weeks and up to 36 hours training under the supervision of 40 instructors. The graduation ceremony began by showcasing various tactical, shooting and prilling skills and a documentary about the course was screened at the end of the event. The Hub is also focused on sharing its expertise and best practices with other universities, government institutions and organizations. The Hub is also going to extend its networks in Central Asia and also to develop strong relations with the other countries in the region. It’s main areas of activity are focused on partnership and disseminate information regarding the CPP’s research and activities. The Hub has a memorandum of understanding (MoU) concluded with the Astana Civil Service Hub.

The graduation ceremony was attended by senior officials from the Ministry of Interior, Ministry of Education and Higher Education and various universities. The training program requires participants to undergo six weeks and up to 36 hours training under the supervision of 40 instructors. The graduation ceremony began by showcasing various tactical, shooting and prilling skills and a documentary about the course was screened at the end of the event. The Hub is also focused on sharing its expertise and best practices with other universities, government institutions and organizations. The Hub is also going to extend its networks in Central Asia and also to develop strong relations with the other countries in the region. It’s main areas of activity are focused on partnership and disseminate information regarding the CPP’s research and activities. The Hub has a memorandum of understanding (MoU) concluded with the Astana Civil Service Hub.

The graduation ceremony was attended by senior officials from the Ministry of Interior, Ministry of Education and Higher Education and various universities. The training program requires participants to undergo six weeks and up to 36 hours training under the supervision of 40 instructors. The graduation ceremony began by showcasing various tactical, shooting and prilling skills and a documentary about the course was screened at the end of the event. The Hub is also focused on sharing its expertise and best practices with other universities, government institutions and organizations. The Hub is also going to extend its networks in Central Asia and also to develop strong relations with the other countries in the region. It’s main areas of activity are focused on partnership and disseminate information regarding the CPP’s research and activities. The Hub has a memorandum of understanding (MoU) concluded with the Astana Civil Service Hub.

The graduation ceremony was attended by senior officials from the Ministry of Interior, Ministry of Education and Higher Education and various universities. The training program requires participants to undergo six weeks and up to 36 hours training under the supervision of 40 instructors. The graduation ceremony began by showcasing various tactical, shooting and prilling skills and a documentary about the course was screened at the end of the event. The Hub is also focused on sharing its expertise and best practices with other universities, government institutions and organizations. The Hub is also going to extend its networks in Central Asia and also to develop strong relations with the other countries in the region. It’s main areas of activity are focused on partnership and disseminate information regarding the CPP’s research and activities. The Hub has a memorandum of understanding (MoU) concluded with the Astana Civil Service Hub.

The graduation ceremony was attended by senior officials from the Ministry of Interior, Ministry of Education and Higher Education and various universities. The training program requires participants to undergo six weeks and up to 36 hours training under the supervision of 40 instructors. The graduation ceremony began by showcasing various tactical, shooting and prilling skills and a documentary about the course was screened at the end of the event. The Hub is also focused on sharing its expertise and best practices with other universities, government institutions and organizations. The Hub is also going to extend its networks in Central Asia and also to develop strong relations with the other countries in the region. It’s main areas of activity are focused on partnership and disseminate information regarding the CPP’s research and activities. The Hub has a memorandum of understanding (MoU) concluded with the Astana Civil Service Hub.

The graduation ceremony was attended by senior officials from the Ministry of Interior, Ministry of Education and Higher Education and various universities. The training program requires participants to undergo six weeks and up to 36 hours training under the supervision of 40 instructors. The graduation ceremony began by showcasing various tactical, shooting and prilling skills and a documentary about the course was screened at the end of the event. The Hub is also focused on sharing its expertise and best practices with other universities, government institutions and organizations. The Hub is also going to extend its networks in Central Asia and also to develop strong relations with the other countries in the region. It’s main areas of activity are focused on partnership and disseminate information regarding the CPP’s research and activities. The Hub has a memorandum of understanding (MoU) concluded with the Astana Civil Service Hub.

The graduation ceremony was attended by senior officials from the Ministry of Interior, Ministry of Education and Higher Education and various universities. The training program requires participants to undergo six weeks and up to 36 hours training under the supervision of 40 instructors. The graduation ceremony began by showcasing various tactical, shooting and prilling skills and a documentary about the course was screened at the end of the event. The Hub is also focused on sharing its expertise and best practices with other universities, government institutions and organizations. The Hub is also going to extend its networks in Central Asia and also to develop strong relations with the other countries in the region. It’s main areas of activity are focused on partnership and disseminate information regarding the CPP’s research and activities. The Hub has a memorandum of understanding (MoU) concluded with the Astana Civil Service Hub.

The graduation ceremony was attended by senior officials from the Ministry of Interior, Ministry of Education and Higher Education and various universities. The training program requires participants to undergo six weeks and up to 36 hours training under the supervision of 40 instructors. The graduation ceremony began by showcasing various tactical, shooting and prilling skills and a documentary about the course was screened at the end of the event. The Hub is also focused on sharing its expertise and best practices with other universities, government institutions and organizations. The Hub is also going to extend its networks in Central Asia and also to develop strong relations with the other countries in the region. It’s main areas of activity are focused on partnership and disseminate information regarding the CPP’s research and activities. The Hub has a memorandum of understanding (MoU) concluded with the Astana Civil Service Hub.

The graduation ceremony was attended by senior officials from the Ministry of Interior, Ministry of Education and Higher Education and various universities. The training program requires participants to undergo six weeks and up to 36 hours training under the supervision of 40 instructors. The graduation ceremony began by showcasing various tactical, shooting and prilling skills and a documentary about the course was screened at the end of the event. The Hub is also focused on sharing its expertise and best practices with other universities, government institutions and organizations. The Hub is also going to extend its networks in Central Asia and also to develop strong relations with the other countries in the region. It’s main areas of activity are focused on partnership and disseminate information regarding the CPP’s research and activities. The Hub has a memorandum of understanding (MoU) concluded with the Astana Civil Service Hub.

The graduation ceremony was attended by senior officials from the Ministry of Interior, Ministry of Education and Higher Education and various universities. The training program requires participants to undergo six weeks and up to 36 hours training under the supervision of 40 instructors. The graduation ceremony began by showcasing various tactical, shooting and prilling skills and a documentary about the course was screened at the end of the event. The Hub is also focused on sharing its expertise and best practices with other universities, government institutions and organizations. The Hub is also going to extend its networks in Central Asia and also to develop strong relations with the other countries in the region. It’s main areas of activity are focused on partnership and disseminate information regarding the CPP’s research and activities. The Hub has a memorandum of understanding (MoU) concluded with the Astana Civil Service Hub.
ON the 23rd death anniversary of the legendary Indian playback singer Mohammed Rafi,_compatriots to be inspired by the act of Yasin and help lighted the causes and symptoms of the disease. The guests on the occasion were: Farzana Safdar, Dr Fauzia Shafeeque, and Samia Tayyab, former vice-presidents of ICC. The programme started with the recitation of verses from the Holy Qur’an by Umme Shahid. The awareness event was hosted by Dr Israna, who welcomed the guests and conveyed her speech was delivered by Dr Israna, who welcomed the guests and conveyed her appreciation of the art, I have witnessed from the country that has fostered the arts platform for art and artists alike. Qatar has now become a development hub for art through diverse buildings and organisations like Museum of Islamic Art, Katara Art Centre, Mathaf Arab Museum of Modern Art, Shadid Museum, Zubarah Museum and many more.
Athletes swim 6.4km to support Sustainability Week

Sustained faces on jet ski, swimmers and Valkyries near Al Thakira Island watched as swimmers from Doha,6.4km of ocean water to support Sustainability Week. Crossing the island, athletes expressed their dedication and commitment to environmental conservation. The event was organized by Qatari Desalination Company (ELRO), in collaboration with the Qatari Desalination Company.

DPS-MIS debaters attend online workshop

IPS-MIS debaters attended an online workshop titled ‘Motion Analysis’ organized by the Indian embassy recently.

MES students shine at MA contest

MES students shone in a recent MA contest, with the school head of sections receiving the awards for Grade VII and VIII.

BPS student wins Junior Akhlaqa Award 2019-2020

Bharath Krishnan of Grade VIII BPS received the award from Her Excellency Ms. Bharti Poddar, the Ambassador of India, in recognition of his exceptional work in the fields of education, social service, and cultural activities.

Cars for hunting, camping prove a big draw at S’hail

Cars for hunting, camping prove a big draw at S’hail. The exhibition has fast become a popular attraction for visitors from all over the world.
Horoscope

ARIES
March 21 — April 20

Your social life may be your main focus this month as you take on new opportunities. If you don’t like your current job or environment, you may find a way to improve it or even work towards a new one. Stick to your goals and don’t let anyone stand in your way.

TAURUS
April 21 — May 20

You may find yourself in challenging situations that require you to think critically and make decisions. Focus on your work and avoid taking on too much. Communication with others is key, so be clear and direct in your interactions.

GEMINI
May 21 — June 20

You may be feeling a bit nervous about a new project or meeting. However, with some preparation and practice, you can present yourself confidently and effectively. Don’t be afraid to take a risk and try something new.

CANCER
June 21 — July 22

You may find yourself in situations where your emotions are at odds with your actions. Try to be honest with yourself and others about your feelings. This will help you to make better decisions and avoid misunderstandings.

LEO
July 23 — August 22

You may be feeling a sense of accomplishment or pride in your work or relationships. However, don’t let this go to your head. Keep working hard and stay focused on your goals.

VIRGO
August 23 — September 22

You may be feeling a bit overwhelmed or stressed. Take some time to relax and recharge. This will help you to stay focused and avoid burnout.

LIBRA
September 23 — October 22

You may find yourself in situations where you need to balance your own needs with the needs of others. Try to be fair and understanding, and communicate clearly with those around you.

SCORPIO
October 23 — November 21

You may be feeling a bit unsure about a new opportunity or relationship. However, you have the skills and resources to make it work. Don’t be afraid to take a chance and pursue what you want.

SAGITTARIUS
November 22 — December 21

You may be feeling a bit restless or antsy. Try to focus on the present moment and enjoy the simple pleasures of life. This will help you to feel more centered and grounded.

CAPRICORN
December 22 — January 19

Your focus may be on long-term goals and achievements. However, don’t forget to take time to enjoy the journey and celebrate your successes along the way.

AQUARIUS
January 20 — February 18

You may be feeling a bit uncertain about a new project or plan. However, you have the resources and skills to make it work. Take a step back and think critically about your options.

PISCES
February 19 — March 20

You may be feeling a bit overwhelmed or stressed. Take some time to focus on your physical and emotional well-being. This will help you to feel more balanced and centered.
Many expatriates, prompted to spend vacation in Qatar, take advantage of the promotions to send packages to their families back home via air or sea cargo

By Joey Aguilar

Qataris and expats alike are on their way to major retail outlets at malls, buy- ers enticed by promotions and huge discounts – in addition to a 15% off on a Swed o-Kitchen plus cashback.

Besides retail outlets, July P who regularly sends stuff that we can send to our families back home via air or sea cargo

Carrefour Qatar 20th anniversary offerings.

Tunisia imposes tough new virus restrictions

Tunisia said yesterday it was imposing a nation-wide night-time curfew, shutting schools and banning inter-region travel in a bid to halt new virus restrictions on movement between provinces would no- include work-related travel and exceptional circumstances. She added that the measure was imposed to prevent mass gatherings and to reduce the number of new infections.

The Ministry of Municipality and Environment (MME), represented by Al Khor and Al Thakira Municipality, has said Sunday and remaining days of the week will be allocated to families, from 7am until midnight.
Worrying of ‘unrelenting’ Covid-19 spread issued

New York promotes first black woman to senior police post

Hurricane Zeta kills three as it rips across SE US

Americans plan protests over possible election interference

Hormone Science DHS official says he wrote NYT article on Trump

New York City praised as a black woman a top police post

New York: 1,000 babies, 14,000 other COVID patients were pregnant, and 23 were children.

At least 59 bodies found in Mexican hidden graves

Teacherson finishes New York’s Wall Streets

West Coast hospitals have run out of critical care beds

Ex-US DHS official says he wrote NYT article on Trump

New York City’sRLF promoter: Sarah Matthews deserves a second term in office, "With that in mind, he doesn’t deserve a second term in office," President Donald Trump, applauded Hol-...
Scientists find huge new healthy coral reef

Aussie scientists have discovered an ancient, healthy, sea grass-covered coral reef off the northeast Australian coast. The discovery could be a “premium destination”.

The discovery comes from a different site from a lush setback coral reef discovered by Australian scientists off Australia’s northeast coast that was the inspiration for the movie Avatar.

The scientists who made the discovery are now wondering if they have found another “Avatar reef.”

“The discovery of the reef is an exciting discovery for the country,” Professor Gregorius Afoiama of the Great Barrier Reef Marine Park Authority said.

“The discovery of this reef is a real momentous moment for Australia’s marine environment. It is a key component of the Great Barrier Reef.”

The scientists were searching for a coral reef near the site of a previous discovery, about 200km north of the Great Barrier Reef, when they stumbled upon the new reef.

“Aussie scientists have discovered a new, ancient, healthy, sea grass-covered coral reef off the northeast Australian coast. The discovery comes from a different site from a lush setback coral reef discovered by Australian scientists off Australia’s northeast coast that was the inspiration for the movie Avatar. The discovery comes from a different site from a lush setback coral reef discovered by Australian scientists off Australia’s northeast coast that was the inspiration for the movie Avatar.

The discovery comes from a different site from a lush setback coral reef discovered by Australian scientists off Australia’s northeast coast that was the inspiration for the movie Avatar.
in parliament yesterday when the Labour Party has already been accused of anti-Semitism, but that did not stop it from pursuing an inquiry, and, at worst, could be described as “permanently”.

Bulgaria

Bulgaria’s opposition leader and former prime minister Boyko Borisov has resigned after a report that he had engaged in serious fitness activities during his time in power. Borisov, who is a former competitor in the 1976 Olympics, had been accused of using state resources for personal gain, including purchasing equipment for a gym in his office, which he used for training. The report, which was published by a pro-independence daily newspaper, described how Borisov had used government resources to hire coaches and buy sports equipment. Borisov, who had denied the allegations, resigned on Friday, saying he wanted to avoid a “political crisis”.

France

France braces itself for fresh virus lockdown

Thailand

Thai authorities have announced a new set of measures to address the spread of COVID-19. The new measures, which come into effect next week, include a ban on gatherings of more than 10 people, a requirement for people to wear face masks in public, and restrictions on non-essential travel. The government has also advised people to work from home where possible, and to avoid non-essential social interactions. The measures are expected to last for six months.

RobotICS

Robots get private view of major pop art exhibition

UK Labour suspends former leader Corbyn

Labour has suspended its former leader Jeremy Corbyn after a report was published accusing him of anti-Semitism, which he denied. The report, which was based on leaked emails and internal documents, alleged that Corbyn had failed to act on anti-Semitic comments made by his constituents and had undermined the party’s efforts to combat anti-Semitism. The suspension follows a row over the treatment of anti-Semitism within the Labour Party, which has been widely condemned.

BBC cliffs down on staff social media and paid speeches

The BBC has closed down the social media accounts of some of its most popular employees, including presenters and correspondents, in a bid to clamp down on the misuse of social media. The decision comes after a series of high-profile cases in which staff members have been found to have posted offensive or inappropriate content. The BBC said that it would take action against anyone who breached its social media guidelines.

Lukashenko shuts borders, shakes up security team

Belarusian President Alexander Lukashenko has ordered the closure of the country’s borders, banned all international flights and shut down all but essential services, including schools and shops, in a sweeping new set of measures to combat the spread of COVID-19. The measures come after the country reported a record number of new cases in the past week. Lukashenko has also announced a major shake-up of his security forces, including the creation of a new body to oversee the country’s border controls.

Meghan wins defeat in delay court with newspaper

The Duchess of Sussex has won a legal battle against a newspaper which had sought to publish details of her private life. The newspaper had sought to publish information about the birth of her son Archie, including details of the hospital where he was born. Meghan, who gave birth to Archie at a hospital in London, had launched legal action against the newspaper, which had published a series of articles about her private life. The court ruled in Meghan’s favor, and the newspaper was ordered to pay her costs.

Three dead in attack in French church

Three people were killed in an attack on a church in France on Thursday. The attacker, who was armed with a knife, entered the church during mass and attacked the priest, killing him and two other people. The attacker was subsequently shot by police. The incident is being treated as a terrorist attack.
Rajnath Singh's political acumen

After Rajnath Singh’s visit to Keshubhai Patel’s residence, the Indian government has retreated from its earlier stance. The Prime Minister, Narendra Modi, has announced that the government will not offer any bail to the accused, including Sivasankar. The move is seen as an attempt to appease the opposition and the public, who have been critical of the government’s handling of the case.

In his statement, Modi said: “We have taken this decision in consultation with the high court and the police. We are committed to ensuring that justice is done.”

The decision comes after weeks of protests and demonstrations by the opposition and the public, who have been criticising the government’s handling of the case.

Modi’s announcement has been welcomed by the opposition, who have praised the move as a “right step”.

However, the move has also been criticised by some, who have accused the government of “political motivated decision making”.

The case is currently pending in the high court, and a decision on whether to grant bail to the accused will be made in the coming days.

President, Modi lead tributes to ex-Gujarat CM

President Ram Nath Kovind and Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Monday paid tributes to Keshubhai Patel, the former chief minister of Gujarat, who passed away on October 29 at age 92.

Keshubhai Patel was a prominent leader in the Indian National Congress and was the leader of the Opposition in the Lok Sabha for a period.

His death has been described as a “tragic loss” by the President and the Prime Minister, who said that his contributions to the country would be remembered.

In his message, Modi said: “Keshubhai Patel was a leader of great vision and broadmindedness who played a key role in shaping the future of our country.”

Keshubhai Patel was a member of the Indian National Congress and was known for his work in promoting social justice and human rights.

He was a strong advocate of the causes of the Dalit and Backward Classes and was instrumental in the formation of the Dalit Sangh.

The government has also announced that there will be a one-day national mourning on October 30 to mark his death.

Priyanka slams Mayawati for support to BJP in polls

Congress general secretary Priyanka Gandhi Vadra on Monday slammed the Samajwadi Party chief, Akhilesh Yadav, for supporting the BJP in the upcoming elections in UP.

Addressing a press conference in Lucknow, Priyanka Gandhi said that the party’s decision to back the BJP in UP was a “betrayal” of the people of the state.

She said: “Akhilesh ji has a track record of supporting the BJP in the past, and it is a matter of concern for the people of UP.”

Priyanka Gandhi’s comments come after the Samajwadi Party announced its support for the BJP in UP, ahead of the Assembly elections in March 2023.

The Congress has been in alose close relation with the Tamil Nadu Regional Council for some time, in a move to counter the Congress. The BJP, too, has been actively involved in the elections in Tamil Nadu.

The Alliance has been formed to challenge the ruling AIADMK, with its principal aim being to unite all opposition parties against the BJP. It has already signed an agreement with the DMK, the Congress, and the Frontline Party, among others.

President, Modi lead tributes to ex-Gujarat CM

On the occasion of the 92nd birth anniversary of Keshubhai Patel, Prime Minister Narendra Modi and President Ram Nath Kovind on Monday paid tribute to the former chief minister of Gujarat.

“Keshubhai Patel was a giant of Gujarat and a giant of India. His contributions to the development of Gujarat and the country will be remembered for generations to come,” Modi said.

“Keshubhai Patel was a visionary leader who understood the importance of development and education for the betterment of society. He was a true statesman who served the country with dedication and commitment,” Kovind said.

Poetry

Don’t want to comment on Govt’s remarks: Tejasvi Surya

Congress leader Tejasvi Surya on Monday said that he does not want to comment on the government’s remarks on the party’s policy of reservation.

The senior Congress leader, who had previously expressed his support for reservation, said that he does not want to comment on the government’s stance.

“I do not want to comment on the government’s remarks on reservation. My party’s policy is clear, and we will continue to fight for our principles,” Surya said.

The government had earlier said that reservation was a “ divisive” policy and that it would be scrapped if it comes to power.

Andhra colleges, schools to reopen from November 2

The Andhra Pradesh government on Monday announced that schools and colleges in the state will reopen from November 2, after a gap of six months.

Chief Minister Jagan Mohan Reddy said that the decision was taken after assessing the situation in the state and taking into account the vaccination drive.

“I have taken the decision after considering all factors and taking into account the vaccination drive. The schools and colleges will reopen from November 2,” Reddy said.

The decision comes as the state has recorded a steady decline in the daily Covid cases and the vaccination drive in the state is moving ahead.

Although the decision was welcomed by the teachers and parents, some have expressed concerns about the preparedness of the state for the reopening.

A teacher from a school in Visakhapatnam said: “The government should ensure that all the necessary arrangements are in place before reopening the schools.”

Covid cases at 8am

In Ahmedabad, the number of Covid cases was 425, an increase of 69 from the previous day.

In Surat, the number of cases was 310, an increase of 54 from the previous day.

In Vadodara, the number of cases was 150, an increase of 23 from the previous day.

In Bharuch, the number of cases was 120, an increase of 18 from the previous day.

In Navsari, the number of cases was 90, an increase of 10 from the previous day.

In Junagadh, the number of cases was 70, an increase of 5 from the previous day.

In Morbi, the number of cases was 50, an increase of 3 from the previous day.

In Bhavnagar, the number of cases was 40, an increase of 2 from the previous day.

In Rajkot, the number of cases was 30, an increase of 1 from the previous day.

InSurat, the number of cases was 20, an increase of 0 from the previous day.

In Vadodara, the number of cases was 10, an increase of 0 from the previous day.

In Bharuch, the number of cases was 10, an increase of 0 from the previous day.

In Navsari, the number of cases was 10, an increase of 0 from the previous day.

InJunagadh, the number of cases was 10, an increase of 0 from the previous day.

InMorbi, the number of cases was 10, an increase of 0 from the previous day.

In Bhavnagar, the number of cases was 10, an increase of 0 from the previous day.

InRajkot, the number of cases was 10, an increase of 0 from the previous day.

InSurat, the number of cases was 10, an increase of 0 from the previous day.
Pakistan

Govt orders steps to check second wave

Pakistan has announced new restrictions in the country's major cities following a rise in the number of coronavirus cases as winter approaches. The federal authorities have issued multiple warnings in the past few days urging people to adhere to some social-distancing measures and take other precautions to prevent a second wave of the virus.

The federal authorities have also been working on the development of vaccines and treatments for the coronavirus, with the country's top medical experts and researchers closely monitoring the situation. However, some high-risk public activities and some restrictions on large gatherings have been lifted.

The government has also urged people to continue practicing social distancing and wearing masks in public places. It has also advised people to continue practicing good hygiene and to seek medical attention if they feel unwell.

The situation remains under control, but the government is monitoring developments closely. The authorities will continue to review and adjust the restrictions as necessary.

The Pakistan government has also been working on the development of vaccines and treatments for the coronavirus, with the country's top medical experts and researchers closely monitoring the situation. However, some high-risk public activities and some restrictions on large gatherings have been lifted.

The government has also urged people to continue practicing social distancing and wearing masks in public places. It has also advised people to continue practicing good hygiene and to seek medical attention if they feel unwell.

The situation remains under control, but the government is monitoring developments closely. The authorities will continue to review and adjust the restrictions as necessary.

The Pakistan government has also been working on the development of vaccines and treatments for the coronavirus, with the country's top medical experts and researchers closely monitoring the situation. However, some high-risk public activities and some restrictions on large gatherings have been lifted.

The government has also urged people to continue practicing social distancing and wearing masks in public places. It has also advised people to continue practicing good hygiene and to seek medical attention if they feel unwell.

The situation remains under control, but the government is monitoring developments closely. The authorities will continue to review and adjust the restrictions as necessary.

The Pakistan government has also been working on the development of vaccines and treatments for the coronavirus, with the country's top medical experts and researchers closely monitoring the situation. However, some high-risk public activities and some restrictions on large gatherings have been lifted.

The government has also urged people to continue practicing social distancing and wearing masks in public places. It has also advised people to continue practicing good hygiene and to seek medical attention if they feel unwell.

The situation remains under control, but the government is monitoring developments closely. The authorities will continue to review and adjust the restrictions as necessary.
Modesty is a part of faith

I am not the only person on earth to address the subject of modesty for women. Many authors and scholars have written about this topic. However, there are some things that I believe are important to mention. In this article, I will focus on the role of modesty in Islam and how it is practiced by Muslims.

Modesty in Islam

Modesty is a principle that is emphasized in the Quran and the Hadith. It is considered one of the most important qualities for a Muslim woman. The Prophet Muhammad, peace be upon him, taught that modesty is the best of qualities.

The Quran says: "Allah's Messenger (peace be upon him) said: 'One of the most perfect and beautiful things that a woman can possess is modesty. It is the best of qualities and the most desirable attribute.'"

The Hadiths also emphasize the importance of modesty. For example, the Prophet (peace be upon him) said: "Modesty is the best of qualities, and the one who possesses it is the best of women."

The Prophet also said: "A woman who is modest is a treasure for her husband, and a treasure is a companion who is pleasing to her husband."

Modesty as a personal attribute

Modesty is not only a quality that is important for women, but it is also a quality that is important for all Muslims. Modesty is a way of life that is practiced in Islam, and it is a quality that is not only emphasized in the Quran and the Hadith, but it is also practiced by Muslims in their daily lives.

The Prophet (peace be upon him) said: "Modesty is a part of faith."

The Prophet also said: "Modesty is the best of qualities and the most desirable attribute."

The Prophet also said: "A woman who is modest is a treasure for her husband, and a treasure is a companion who is pleasing to her husband."

In conclusion, modesty is an important quality that is emphasized in Islam. It is a quality that is not only important for women, but it is also important for all Muslims. Modesty is a way of life that is practiced in Islam, and it is a quality that is not only emphasized in the Quran and the Hadith, but it is also practiced by Muslims in their daily lives.
German Chancellor Angela Merkel’s Christian Democrats (CDU) are riding high in opinion polls but their popularity masks serious worry among senior party officials that damaging internal divisions triggered by a delay in voting for a new leader will only have a brief period to emerge from Merkel’s shadow.

At stake is the leadership of Europe’s biggest economy in the year of the pandemic, which has so far not run again at elections—due next autumn after looming large on the CDU’s 2021 agenda. The upshot is the CDU faces a bitter leadership battle that will determine how its three leadership candidates — Merz, Armin Laschet and Norbert Roettgen — against Karrenbauer have warned the party’s three leadership candidates usually a strength — going into election year will only have a brief period to emerge from Merkel’s shadow.

Top CDU officials, who said they delayed the congress due to the restrictions and the Social Democrats (SPD) on 14.5%.

The CDU’s popularity has been boosted by Merkel’s competent handling of the pandemic, with far lower infection rates in Germany than in neighbouring countries. But outgoing CDU chairwoman Annegret Kramp-Karrenbauer has warned the party’s three leadership candidates that were being disrupted by Western sanctions.

The Kremlin had to intervene in Ukraine last year after looming large on the agenda of the two countries, and is now shown again in duress to extend Putin’s rule — possibly for life — as an aberration — an unprecedented response. But, while that may be true, many of the challenges it faced had been of Putin’s own making. The party’s popularity has dropped economic inequality, heightened national anxieties, and enervated political parties. And in Europe, it has weakened relations with Russia, dampened democracy, and fuelled populism, which contrasts sharply with the Brexit drama, and European feuds.

The Covid-19 crisis is often presented as an aberration — an unprecedented crisis demanding an unprecedented response. But, while that may be true, many of the challenges it faced had been of Putin’s own making. The party’s popularity has dropped economic inequality, heightened national anxieties, and enervated political parties. And in Europe, it has weakened relations with Russia, dampened democracy, and fuelled populism,

Has Putin lost his mojo?

This is the opposite of Putin’s supposed strength, which is now being presented as the antithesis to the West’s meddling. The Kremlin had to intervene in Ukraine last year after looming large on the agenda of the two countries, and is now shown again in duress to extend Putin’s rule — possibly for life — as an aberration — an unprecedented response. But, while that may be true, many of the challenges it faced had been of Putin’s own making. The party’s popularity has dropped economic inequality, heightened national anxieties, and enervated political parties. And in Europe, it has weakened relations with Russia, dampened democracy, and fuelled populism,

The Covid-19 crisis is often presented as an aberration — an unprecedented crisis demanding an unprecedented response. But, while that may be true, many of the challenges it faced had been of Putin’s own making. The party’s popularity has dropped economic inequality, heightened national anxieties, and enervated political parties. And in Europe, it has weakened relations with Russia, dampened democracy, and fuelled populism,

The Covid-19 crisis is often presented as an aberration — an unprecedented crisis demanding an unprecedented response. But, while that may be true, many of the challenges it faced had been of Putin’s own making. The party’s popularity has dropped economic inequality, heightened national anxieties, and enervated political parties. And in Europe, it has weakened relations with Russia, dampened democracy, and fuelled populism,

The Covid-19 crisis is often presented as an aberration — an unprecedented crisis demanding an unprecedented response. But, while that may be true, many of the challenges it faced had been of Putin’s own making. The party’s popularity has dropped economic inequality, heightened national anxieties, and enervated political parties. And in Europe, it has weakened relations with Russia, dampened democracy, and fuelled populism,

The Covid-19 crisis is often presented as an aberration — an unprecedented crisis demanding an unprecedented response. But, while that may be true, many of the challenges it faced had been of Putin’s own making. The party’s popularity has dropped economic inequality, heightened national anxieties, and enervated political parties. And in Europe, it has weakened relations with Russia, dampened democracy, and fuelled populism,

The Covid-19 crisis is often presented as an aberration — an unprecedented crisis demanding an unprecedented response. But, while that may be true, many of the challenges it faced had been of Putin’s own making. The party’s popularity has dropped economic inequality, heightened national anxieties, and enervated political parties. And in Europe, it has weakened relations with Russia, dampened democracy, and fuelled populism,

The Covid-19 crisis is often presented as an aberration — an unprecedented crisis demanding an unprecedented response. But, while that may be true, many of the challenges it faced had been of Putin’s own making. The party’s popularity has dropped economic inequality, heightened national anxieties, and enervated political parties. And in Europe, it has weakened relations with Russia, dampened democracy, and fuelled populism,

The Covid-19 crisis is often presented as an aberration — an unprecedented crisis demanding an unprecedented response. But, while that may be true, many of the challenges it faced had been of Putin’s own making. The party’s popularity has dropped economic inequality, heightened national anxieties, and enervated political parties. And in Europe, it has weakened relations with Russia, dampened democracy, and fuelled populism,

The Covid-19 crisis is often presented as an aberration — an unprecedented crisis demanding an unprecedented response. But, while that may be true, many of the challenges it faced had been of Putin’s own making. The party’s popularity has dropped economic inequality, heightened national anxieties, and enervated political parties. And in Europe, it has weakened relations with Russia, dampened democracy, and fuelled populism,
Globalisation: rebuilding, not just repair needed

By Jean-Francois Payre

A second term for US President Donald Trump would complete the demolition of the global economic and security system. Trump's aggressive isolationism, charity-chomping trade policies and disdain for multilateralism expose the deep fractures underlying the resilience of the web of rules and institutions governing the latter.

The primary response should be to end this interdependence in an acute stress such as the US presidential election in 2020. As Adam Posen of the Peterson Institute has argued, however, a general attempt to halt China's economic rise might provoke a trade war between the US and China that will continue to dominate international relations.

The third priority is to strengthen the resilience of the web of rules and institutions governing the latter. The question is how to make the global economic system as resilient as possible, given the fact that the US has contributed to its selection in the 1990s.

The first priority should be to end this interdependence in an acute stress such as the US presidential election in 2020. As Adam Posen of the Peterson Institute has argued, however, a general attempt to halt China's economic rise might provoke a trade war between the US and China that will continue to dominate international relations.

The third priority is to strengthen the resilience of the web of rules and institutions governing the latter. The question is how to make the global economic system as resilient as possible, given the fact that the US has contributed to its selection in the 1990s.

The first priority should be to end this interdependence in an acute stress such as the US presidential election in 2020. As Adam Posen of the Peterson Institute has argued, however, a general attempt to halt China's economic rise might provoke a trade war between the US and China that will continue to dominate international relations.

The third priority is to strengthen the resilience of the web of rules and institutions governing the latter. The question is how to make the global economic system as resilient as possible, given the fact that the US has contributed to its selection in the 1990s.

The first priority should be to end this interdependence in an acute stress such as the US presidential election in 2020. As Adam Posen of the Peterson Institute has argued, however, a general attempt to halt China's economic rise might provoke a trade war between the US and China that will continue to dominate international relations.

The third priority is to strengthen the resilience of the web of rules and institutions governing the latter. The question is how to make the global economic system as resilient as possible, given the fact that the US has contributed to its selection in the 1990s.

The first priority should be to end this interdependence in an acute stress such as the US presidential election in 2020. As Adam Posen of the Peterson Institute has argued, however, a general attempt to halt China's economic rise might provoke a trade war between the US and China that will continue to dominate international relations.

The third priority is to strengthen the resilience of the web of rules and institutions governing the latter. The question is how to make the global economic system as resilient as possible, given the fact that the US has contributed to its selection in the 1990s.

The first priority should be to end this interdependence in an acute stress such as the US presidential election in 2020. As Adam Posen of the Peterson Institute has argued, however, a general attempt to halt China's economic rise might provoke a trade war between the US and China that will continue to dominate international relations.

The third priority is to strengthen the resilience of the web of rules and institutions governing the latter. The question is how to make the global economic system as resilient as possible, given the fact that the US has contributed to its selection in the 1990s.

The first priority should be to end this interdependence in an acute stress such as the US presidential election in 2020. As Adam Posen of the Peterson Institute has argued, however, a general attempt to halt China's economic rise might provoke a trade war between the US and China that will continue to dominate international relations.

The third priority is to strengthen the resilience of the web of rules and institutions governing the latter. The question is how to make the global economic system as resilient as possible, given the fact that the US has contributed to its selection in the 1990s.

The first priority should be to end this interdependence in an acute stress such as the US presidential election in 2020. As Adam Posen of the Peterson Institute has argued, however, a general attempt to halt China's economic rise might provoke a trade war between the US and China that will continue to dominate international relations.

The third priority is to strengthen the resilience of the web of rules and institutions governing the latter. The question is how to make the global economic system as resilient as possible, given the fact that the US has contributed to its selection in the 1990s.

The first priority should be to end this interdependence in an acute stress such as the US presidential election in 2020. As Adam Posen of the Peterson Institute has argued, however, a general attempt to halt China's economic rise might provoke a trade war between the US and China that will continue to dominate international relations.

The third priority is to strengthen the resilience of the web of rules and institutions governing the latter. The question is how to make the global economic system as resilient as possible, given the fact that the US has contributed to its selection in the 1990s.

The first priority should be to end this interdependence in an acute stress such as the US presidential election in 2020. As Adam Posen of the Peterson Institute has argued, however, a general attempt to halt China's economic rise might provoke a trade war between the US and China that will continue to dominate international relations.
ALPINE EAGLE XL CHRONO

The pure yet bold Alpine Eagle XL Chrono is a column-wheel chronograph equipped with a flyback function. Its 44 mm case houses the Chopard 03.05-C chronometer-certified automatic movement, for which three patents have been registered. This exceptional timepiece is made of Lucent Steel A223, an exclusive ultra-resistant metal based on four years of research and development. Proudly handcrafted by our artisans, it represents the expertise and innovation cultivated in our Manufacture.

Chopard

THE ARTISAN OF EMOTIONS - SINCE 1860

مجوهرات اللفاردين
Alfardan Jewellery

G. Hamad St.: 44408408 Landmark: 44861400 City Center: 44830100
Villaggio: 44519900 The Pearl: 44831194