Al Duhail bounce back in style to beat Khor

Al Duhail produced a statement performance against fellow Qatar Stars League leaders Al Khor in the 20th round of the 2019-20 QNB Stars League at the Al Gharrafa Sports Club in Doha on Tuesday. Al Duhail won the match 3-1 with two goals from Amine Al Malek and one from Youssef Msakni.

Al Duhail had been defeated 2-0 by Al Khor in the 18th round of the league and had lost to Al Thakheema 1-0 in the 19th round. Al Duhail needed to bounce back in style against Al Khor to prove that they are serious title contenders.

Al Duhail started the match on the front foot, with Amine Al Malek scoring the first goal after just 10 minutes. He received a long pass from Ahmed Hammoudan and finished the shot with a powerful header into the far corner of the goal.

Al Khor responded with a goal from Youssef Msakni in the 23rd minute, but Al Duhail scored again shortly thereafter. Amine Al Malek took a shot from the edge of the box and the ball found the bottom corner of the goal.

Al Duhail continued to dominate proceedings and scored their third goal in the 40th minute. Youssef Msakni finished a cross from Amine Al Malek with a powerful header at the near post.

The second half saw Al Duhail continue to control the match, with Amine Al Malek scoring once again in the 57th minute to make it 4-0. Al Duhail's performance was a welcome boost for fans who had been disappointed by recent results.

Al Duhail will now focus on their upcoming matches in the QNB Stars League, with the goal of securing a second-place finish and securing a place in next season's AFC Champions League.

Al Duhail's victory over Al Khor was a significant step towards their title aspirations. The team will now look to continue their winning momentum in the remaining rounds of the league.

Wembley sell-out: boot room boost for women’s game in England

England will round off a transformational year for women’s football with a front-on sell-out at Wembley on Sunday when Lionesses boss Sarina Wiegman leads her side in a high-stakes 2022 World Cup play-off match with Denmark. The Lionesses have become a global phenomenon thanks to their triumphant run to the Euro 2020 final – which was staged at Wembley – and their opening victory over Brazil at the World Cup in Australia in October where 95,000 tickets sold for the match between Brazil and England. The attendance for the friendly will also deliber- ately be the previous record of 45,400 for an England women’s home internationals, against Germany in 2014. Current book of seats for the Lionesses’ last trip to Wembley in February in the Euros this summer was sold out within minutes of going on sale.

Boosted by the hosting of selected matches at larger stadia continues to renew interest in women’s football, with opening weekend of the WSL, attracted 22,000 spectators from 10,000 with the development of the women’s pyramid. Progress was also made in Wembley this August when 45,000 fans watched the Lionesses’ 2-1 defeat by the United States in the Women’s World Cup semi-final.

Fans have sold out Wembley for every women’s match since the 2012 Olympics.

Jacob scores late, Raiders rally past Chargers

Across the field, the Denver Broncos’ John Elway had another reason to be smiling. Los Angeles Chargers coach Anthony Lynn had been fired on Monday, replaced by Joe Bugel, a former Broncos assistant coach.

“Nothing like a new head coach to get your team fired up,” Elway said.

But Elway wasn’t the only one smiling. Quarterback Derek Carr emerged from the locker room with a grin, too.

“I was happy for Joe,” Carr said. “I think it’s good for the team.”

On the road against the Chargers, the Raiders have had little to smile about this season. After a 5-0 start, they are now sliding down the mountain, and the Chargers have stormed up.

But on Thursday night, the Raiders staged a dramatic rally, scoring 26 points in the final 7:34 of the game for a 26-24 win.

The game was marked by a time clock failure that caused the referees to stop play for 40 seconds.

In the fourth quarter, the Raiders were trailing 24-20 and driving downfield. But they were unable to convert on fourth and one from the Chargers’ three-yard line, and chargers quarterback Philip Rivers hit wide receiver Mike Williams for a 47-yard touchdown to retake the lead.

The Raiders then drove downfield again, but were again unable to convert on fourth and one. But this time, instead of forcing the referees to stop play, the clock stopped itself.

“Pretty wild,” Carr said.

With 17 seconds left, the Raiders had a last chance to win the game. But a field goal attempt was blocked, and the Chargers hung on for the victory.
