beIN Sports sign Mourinho as pundit

Jose Mourinho will join beIN Sports, the global sports broadcaster, this week as part of the AFC Asian Cup 2019 and English Premier League coverage, which will feature across the Middle East and North Africa (Mena) region. Mourinho will also be on air for the FIFA World Cup 2022 in Qatar, the 2024 and 2028 FIFA World Cups and the 2024 UEFA Euros.

Mourinho will be providing his forthright opinions during the first time for the Asian Cup opener between Saudi Arabia and China, with the coach making his debut on beIN Sports. He will also offer his take on the ongoing tournament in Mena as well as provide his thoughts on the best performing players, while also commenting on the coach's style of play. Mourinho will also feature on the organisation’s QSL Cup coverage in Mena with a special focus on the best potential talents in the region.

The back-to-back World Series titles have helped the club establish itself as a household name, drawing sellouts consistently. However, the club’s success on the field has not translated into financial gains, as the team remains one of the lowest-earning in the league.

In this excerpt from the article, the author discusses the impact of the team’s financial struggles and the challenges faced by the organization in maintaining a competitive edge in the highly competitive NHL landscape.

Pakistan bowlers fight back to defy hosts South Africa

Proteas lose seven wickets for 36 post tea on first day to post 262 in first innings

Pakistan's bowlers fought back the third and final Test against South Africa, as they batted 36 for 2 at the close.

Hashim Amla (41) helped in the second over. But tea was in the second over as well. Amla and Fakhar Zaman continued to put pressure on the Proteas.

South Africa made 77 for two at the close. Markram put on 126 for the second wicket with his captain. He scored 38 off 46 balls before he was caught behind wicketkeeper Quinton de Kock.

The 25-year-old Pandya and Rahul ordered back from Aussie tour over misconduct

India yesterday suspended cricketers Hardik Pandya and Lokesh Rahul and ordered them to leave the tour of Australia immediately over comments that are being investigated. The two players have been sent home following an incident in which they were alleged to have made inappropriate comments during a celebrity chat show broadcast last Saturday... Kohli said he was not aware of any inappropriate comments that were made in that conversation, but he added that the two players had not done anything that was not appropriate. The Indian cricket team has been on a long tour in Australia, and the two players have been sent home after the team had won its fourth Test match against New Zealand... Kohli added that the two players had apologized to the management for their comments, but he said that they had not done anything that was not appropriate.
