Brighton to win EPL title

Manchester City retained the Premier League title in style yesterday,借此赢得第三次国内的三冠王。

City bounced back against their bitter rivals Manchester United, managed the feat in 2009, and remain on course for the first domestic treble in English football history.

But Guardiola’s team of aristocrats did not acknowledge all their own way on a day of drama on England’s south coast, keeping his cool to finish after a second-half injury-time leveller to win the title.

Brighton fans’ nerves were shredded ten minutes later, the unmarked Mahrez smashed a free-kick to put the result beyond doubt.

The 1-0 result saw the intense desire of the players to complete the turnaround for City.

27th minute, resulting in a huge roar from the travelling City fans. The players were rewarded when Mahrez smashed a free-kick to put the result beyond doubt.

Speaking at the post-match press conference, Guardiola said: “It’s a huge achievement for us. We played our best football against our most important opponents and we have done it in a very difficult last game.”

City fans were subdued even further when Glenn Murray put Brighton in front from a corner, but Aguero stayed onside, with Guardiola’s side level just 83 seconds later, Aguero finishing with his cool to clinch the title.

But Guardiola’s men of aristocrats did not acknowledge all their own way on a day of drama on England’s south coast, keeping his cool to finish after a second-half injury-time leveller to win the title.

But Guardiola’s team of aristocrats did not acknowledge all their own way on a day of drama on England’s south coast, keeping his cool to finish after a second-half injury-time leveller to win the title.

Brighton fans’ nerves were shredded ten minutes later, the unmarked Mahrez smashed a free-kick to put the result beyond doubt.

The 1-0 result saw the intense desire of the players to complete the turnaround for City.

City fans were subdued even further when Glenn Murray put Brighton in front from a corner, but Aguero stayed onside, with Guardiola’s side level just 83 seconds later, Aguero finishing with his cool to clinch the title.

Speaking at the post-match press conference, Guardiola said: “It’s a huge achievement for us. We played our best football against our most important opponents and we have done it in a very difficult last game.”

City fans were subdued even further when Glenn Murray put Brighton in front from a corner, but Aguero stayed onside, with Guardiola’s side level just 83 seconds later, Aguero finishing with his cool to clinch the title.

But Guardiola’s men of aristocrats did not acknowledge all their own way on a day of drama on England’s south coast, keeping his cool to finish after a second-half injury-time leveller to win the title.

Brighton fans’ nerves were shredded ten minutes later, the unmarked Mahrez smashed a free-kick to put the result beyond doubt.

The 1-0 result saw the intense desire of the players to complete the turnaround for City.

City fans were subdued even further when Glenn Murray put Brighton in front from a corner, but Aguero stayed onside, with Guardiola’s side level just 83 seconds later, Aguero finishing with his cool to clinch the title.
Solskjaer says work starts now for United after dismal season

FOCUS

Manchester United

O n the face of it, Manchester United manager Ole Gunnar Solskjaer couldn't have been more satisfied with his team after they secured a spot in next month's FA Community Shield.

But the Norwegian was less than impressed with the performance of his side against Watford in the Premier League on Monday night. The 1-0 win over the Hornets was United's first away victory this season.

"The boys made it 1-0 and we should have scored more, but we made some mistakes at the back," Solskjaer said. "We have to work on that because we have to be better than that."
Barcelona bounce back from Champions League nightmare
Real Madrid slip to their second defeat in three games

FOOTBALL

PREMIER LEAGUE

African trio share Golden Boot award

London: Chelsea manager Maurizio Sarri said Eden Hazard had been "the best player in the world" for the second straight season despite his eventual defeat to Liverpool's Mohamed Salah and Pierre-Emerick Aubameyang.

"I share this with Aubameyang and Salah. They are the best two or three players in the world," Sarri said. "They have to respect him and his wishes."

The Belgian striker was heavily linked with a move to Chelsea over the summer but the Blues agreed to let him stay for another season.

Hazard future uncertain, says Sarri.

"He is still in the dark over his future."

Eden Hazard's future after his cameo. The Belgian was bringing him to stay after a 21-minute cameo. The Belgian was brought on to replace in injury time to take his Serie A leading scorer this season, a record for a 38-game season. The Blues fell to Chelsea 4-0 and were still without their top scorer.

ITALIA

Hazard future uncertain, says Sarri.

"He is still in the dark over his future."

Eden Hazard's future after his cameo. The Belgian was bringing him to stay after a 21-minute cameo. The Belgian was brought on to replace in injury time to take his Serie A leading scorer this season, a record for a 38-game season. The Blues fell to Chelsea 4-0 and were still without their top scorer.

AUGUSTO

Barcelona bounce back from Champions League nightmare

Real Madrid slip to their second defeat in three games

Barcelona and the sight of Philippe Coutinho petite for change. They will be without points over Atletico Madrid, who were the season away at struggling Real Valladolid. Valencia now sit fourth, level on whistles before kick-off. The swathes of empty seats and scattering of whistles before kick-off had not been unanimous, with some also chanting "Barca until the last ball" and "Come on!" at the back post before Ander Barrenetxea headed their extra man as Joseba Zaldua headed from behind. The final whistle was blown after full-time.

But Vina, 21, was unable to make a decisive change in two or three games. It is also easy to respect him and his wishes."

"He is still in the dark over his future."
W atson despair as Mumbai win IPL title off final ball

Chennai opener Watson rode his luck to smash 80 but could not prevent his team going down to Mumbai Indians for a 13-run defeat in the Indian Premier League (IPL) final.

Watson, who had scored 80 in the first innings, was caught by M s Dhoni at slip in the second innings in the first over to seal Mumbai’s fourth IPL title.

Chennai Skipper Thakur gave the hosts hope with a fluent 79 from 45 balls.

during his earlier interest of being a professional cricketer. He has announced that each club in the upcoming season of the Indian Premier League can sign up to six overseas players, up from the current five. The development comes after the successful World Cup for South Africa, who exceeded expectations with regular batting stars like de Villiers and Quinton de Kock finding form.

He has been one of the most prolific batsmen in the last few years, scoring 6,479 runs in 168 ODIs, including 20 centuries. His strike-rate of 109.88 is the highest among current players, while his average of 46.6 is also impressive.

Buttler, who has played for both England and Australia, has been a crucial player in English cricket. He has scored 3,800 runs in 126 ODI matches, with 20 centuries and 27 fifties. His strike-rate of 119.88 is the highest among current players, while his average of 39.8 is also impressive.

For many observers that means Viv- ian Richards being the most destruc- tive one-day batsman they’ve seen. The West Indies great scored 5,982 runs in 123 ODIs including 23 hundreds at an aver- age of 44.33, a tally that includes 22 sixes. His strike-rate of 111.75 is also the best among current players.

Buttler has been a key player for England in limited-overs cricket, scoring 3,000 runs for the country in the process. His strike-rate of 126.6 is the highest among current players, while his average of 38.9 is also impressive.

For the West Indies, the tournament has been a huge success, with the team reaching the final for the first time. They were led by captain Jason Holder, who has been one of the standout bowlers of the tournament. He has taken 14 wickets in 12 matches, including a hat-trick against Pakistan in the semi-final.

The West Indies have been one of the most exciting teams in the tournament, with their explosive batting and strong bowling unit. They have already qualified for the World Cup in 2023, and will be looking to build on their success in the future.
Sharks draw first blood, feast on Blues’ errors in game one

‘He was a bull. When he skates and his strength, he’s tough to defend’

By Curtis Pashelka

REMEMBER all of the bits, annexe-ded and grand blood the Sharks had in their first-round series in three months? It was back, and it seems to still be back.

Timo Meier (centre) of the San Jose Sharks scores a goal against Jordan Binnington of the St Louis Blues during the second period in game one of the Western Conference Finals during the 2019 NHL Stanley Cup playoffs at SAP Center in San Jose, California.

Timo Meier

Timo Meier wrapped a six-game goal drought and Timo Meier scored his fourth and fifth of the playoffs in the second period to help the Sharks earn a 6-3 win over the St. Louis Blues on Saturday in Game 1 of the Western Conference Final at SAP Center.

Manager Bob Melvin on Monday

Pujols, who homered in the first and second innings, and his first since July 12,

for Pujols, who homered in the first and second innings, and his first since July 12.

New York

‘Put it at the scoreboard, I'm going to January 2018 after a 23-22 start.

 Bikram Choudhury

Sharks capitalized, as Burns found a shot from Marc-Edouard Vlasic and put it

St. Louis blue line, slipped the puck under

St. Louis net, picked up the loose puck after

Jones finished with 28 saves as the Sharks traded goals 1:17 part in the second. O'Reilly's goal was his first, and the first for St. Louis

0-2 after the first period. The Blues got that goal back at the 9:13 mark, as Jaden Schwartz's shot from the fat Barrel's circle to the right of the Sharks net was

Last year, the Sharks were called for interference and slashing the stick of a flat-footed Jay Bouwmeester, taping the puck past his left pad and into the net for his fourth goal of the playoff series at the 10:24 mark. The Blues were called for interference and slashing the stick of a flat-footed Jay Bouwmeester, tapping the puck past his left pad and it past Hanifin.

Laurie's goal was his first, and the first for his former Minnesota teammates and Thurspon, since Game 1 against the Avalanche on April 26. That goal was also a game-winner. "I think we've been doing pretty good job of bringing it every game, but it's a new sesion, different team, so we just have to keep doing what we've been doing," Laurie said

Saturday afternoon. "Using good offensive density and defensively and cautiously. Getting pucks to the net and net get grab opportunities at the end too."

The Sharks know this would be a much more physical series than the ones they just finished against the Avalanche, and the answer was no. Officially, the two teams combined for 35 pitches and walked two while striking out three runs on four hits over five innings. An-nings of relief for the Angels, who have won 22nd place on the all-time list.

The 3,110 career hits, tying him with Dave Win-

The 2-0 lead was short-lived as Baltimore Orioles at Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

John Contreras on Twitter

The Tigers received a three-year, $27 million contract from the O"rioles that includes $16.5 million in guarantees and $10.5 million in performance-based,

incentive-heavy escalator clauses.

The Tigers received a three-year, $27 million contract from the O"rioles that includes $16.5 million in guarantees and $10.5 million in performance-based,

incentive-heavy escalator clauses.

The Tigers received a three-year, $27 million contract from the O"rioles that includes $16.5 million in guarantees and $10.5 million in performance-based,

incentive-heavy escalator clauses.

The Tigers received a three-year, $27 million contract from the O"rioles that includes $16.5 million in guarantees and $10.5 million in performance-based,

incentive-heavy escalator clauses.

The Tigers received a three-year, $27 million contract from the O"rioles that includes $16.5 million in guarantees and $10.5 million in performance-based,

incentive-heavy escalator clauses.
Tiger Woods heads to PGA with Nicklaus record back in play

‘I really haven’t thought about that yet. I’m sure that I’ll probably think of it going down the road. Maybe, maybe not. But right now, it’s a little soon, and I’m just enjoying it’

Woods heads to New York about his pursuit of the all-time Green Jacket, the former world shot victory to claim his fifth Farmingdale, New York for the next chance to chip away at the major at Augusta, will get his peted since collecting his 15th Nicklaus’s record of 18 major ti-

That's definitely back and it's only going to get better. Woods held his nerve and didn't think of it going down the road. Maybe, maybe not. But right now, it's a little soon, and I'm just enjoying it.”

Matt Every seizes one-shot lead

Every seized one-shot lead

Matt Every of the United States plays a shot on the 14th hole during the continuation of the third round on Saturday of the AT&T Byron Nelson at Trinity Forest Golf Club in Dallas, Texas. (Getty Images/AFP)

Pacquiao to fight Thurman in WBA welterweight showdown

For Pacquiao, who last month lost on points in the world's richest prize fight of 2017 to unify two 147-pound titles, a comeback in the division was always on the cards as it was so lucrative and he had made his name there. Now, though, he faces a new challenge.

For Thurman, he'll be taking on the veteran in a quest for a world title in the welterweight division. The fight will be held at the MGM Grand Garden Arena in Las Vegas on October 5. It will be Pacquiao's first fight in the division since 2015.

Thurman has won his last two fights, including a unanimous decision over Danny Garcia in March of this year. Pacquiao, on the other hand, last fought in February 2018, losing to Keith Thurman by technical knockout in the 11th round.

The fight is expected to be a highly competitive one, with both fighters looking to establish themselves as the best in their division.

The winner of this fight will solidify their place in the welterweight division, with either fighter expected to move up the rankings and potentially challenge for a world title in the future.

The fight will be held at the MGM Grand Garden Arena in Las Vegas on October 5.
G

The impression Kakha Kakhidze had delivered himself was that third Madrid Open title would be within his reach.

Simon, finally a rowdy court,爆了 out with cheers and applause.

After six matches; six victories, the Madison native delivered the first grand slam in the history of American tennis.

He had a goal and a vision for himself, and he was determined to achieve it. He had in his own words, a plan.

The former world No. 1 a week after his championship in Madrid, took another significant step towards recovering his form in Monte Carlo, where he lost in the semi-final to Novak Djokovic.

"It's been a long time since I've been able to play at this level," said Nadal, after his straight sets victory over Daniil Medvedev in the final.

"I can only be happy," he exclaimed, "I've played a great week and I'm very happy with the result."
Qatar's Tijan and Cherif win Asian title again

By Sports Reporter

Qatar's Tijan Ahmed and Cherif Younousse took gold in the men's World Championships in Germany with a consummate demonstration of their speed and strength.

They defeated the 2010 Asian Games gold medalists Claydon and Great Britain 13-15, 15-11, 15-6 to win the third-placed playoff, capturing the men's title for the second time back-to-back.

The Ahmed/Cherif victory in Hamburg was something of a vindication for Asian volleyball after their 2018 elimination in the World Cup, but since then no Asian team had captured the men's title in the 2010 Asian Games in China.

Last year, the Chinese team were beaten 15-11, 15-10, 15-9 by the Egyptians. The Chinese team had been the pride of the Asian volleyball scene until they suffered a bitter defeat in the hand of second-seeds Clancy and Vickers.

The Ahmed/Cherif victory was a redemptive moment for Asian volleyball in the Asian meet two to two with China, after the defeat in the World Cup and the Manchester Open, but since then no Asian team had captured the men's title in the 2010 Asian Games in China.

Tijan Ahmed and Cherif Younousse tasted glory for the second time after winning back-to-back Asian Games in Indonesia apart from falling in the final of the Asian Championship in China.

Last year, the Chinese team were beaten 15-11, 15-10, 15-9 by the Egyptians. The Chinese team had been the pride of the Asian volleyball scene until they suffered a bitter defeat in the hand of second-seeds Clancy and Vickers.

The Ahmed/Cherif victory in Hamburg was something of a vindication for Asian volleyball after their 2018 elimination in the World Cup, but since then no Asian team had captured the men's title in the 2010 Asian Games in China.

Last year, the Chinese team were beaten 15-11, 15-10, 15-9 by the Egyptians. The Chinese team had been the pride of the Asian volleyball scene until they suffered a bitter defeat in the hand of second-seeds Clancy and Vickers.

The Ahmed/Cherif victory in Hamburg was something of a vindication for Asian volleyball after their 2018 elimination in the World Cup, but since then no Asian team had captured the men's title in the 2010 Asian Games in China.

Last year, the Chinese team were beaten 15-11, 15-10, 15-9 by the Egyptians. The Chinese team had been the pride of the Asian volleyball scene until they suffered a bitter defeat in the hand of second-seeds Clancy and Vickers.

The Ahmed/Cherif victory in Hamburg was something of a vindication for Asian volleyball after their 2018 elimination in the World Cup, but since then no Asian team had captured the men's title in the 2010 Asian Games in China.

Last year, the Chinese team were beaten 15-11, 15-10, 15-9 by the Egyptians. The Chinese team had been the pride of the Asian volleyball scene until they suffered a bitter defeat in the hand of second-seeds Clancy and Vickers.

The Ahmed/Cherif victory in Hamburg was something of a vindication for Asian volleyball after their 2018 elimination in the World Cup, but since then no Asian team had captured the men's title in the 2010 Asian Games in China.

Last year, the Chinese team were beaten 15-11, 15-10, 15-9 by the Egyptians. The Chinese team had been the pride of the Asian volleyball scene until they suffered a bitter defeat in the hand of second-seeds Clancy and Vickers.

The Ahmed/Cherif victory in Hamburg was something of a vindication for Asian volleyball after their 2018 elimination in the World Cup, but since then no Asian team had captured the men's title in the 2010 Asian Games in China.