Williamson & Co to face Australia or England in Sunday's final after a top-order collapse condemns India to 18-run loss

New Zealand's man-of-the-match Ross Taylor admitted the Underdog Black Caps, who came into the match on the back of three straight defeats by Pakistan, Australia and England and only qualified for the semi-finals thanks to the discard system, had topped the 15-team group stage.

New Zealand will also be the winners of today's second semi-final between Australia — the team that beat them in the 2015 final — and England in Tuesday's durability, despite the pressure they were under.

"We had to ask a lot of questions. How do we capitalise on them?" Kohli said. "So our team management were in regular touch with the Lord's ground staff for the entire day."

"I think people expected New Zealand to lose. We've played outstanding cricket — a record for a single tournament. We had a good gameplan and we stuck to it."

"You've played outstanding cricket throughout this tournament. Just go out and play till the end."

The pair gave India hope during India's aggregate of 10 four wickets and needing a further 150 for six and needing a further four wickets to fall. Dhoni hit 67 in awkward conditions.

England face acid test in semis clash with Australia

The impressive transformation the hosts have gone through during the 2015 edition will be challenged today.

day for planning to arrive in the UK for the gloves for England when they played in the World Cup. The Shrewsbury Cricket World Cup semi-final against Afghanistan today will see them into a final against New Zealand on Sunday.

England's Ben Stokes takes part in a training session at Edgbaston in Birmingham, United Kingdom, yesterday.

Australia all-rounder Finch's side edged out England at Taunton against Pakistan. And the hosts have burned their coordinates into the game which was quite as well.

"I think we take a lot of confidence from this tournament," he said. "I thought our process in both games were good, we won some really key moments in the game which was crucial as well.

"It will all about how much learnt from this tournament," he added. "It's been a really important match for us to win today and for us to move on to the final."
Roger Federer and Rafael Nadal rod as a Wimbledon double on Thursday, as Saturday's semi-finals are played in the capital city of London. The Swiss and Spaniard will meet in the semi-finals, with the winner advancing to the final and facing a potential opponent for the title. Federer is seeking his 21st Grand Slam title, while Nadal is aiming for his 19th. The two players have faced each other 41 times, with Nadal holding a 23-18 edge. Nadal has also defeated Federer in all four of their meetings at Wimbledon. Federer, who has won the tournament five times, will have to overcome a strong challenge from the Spaniard, who has won the title three times. Nadal leads their head-to-head series 23-18, and has won all four matches in the last five years. The match is expected to be a high-stakes affair, with both players aiming for a win to reach the final and likely face Novak Djokovic. Djokovic, who has won the title twice, is in good form and will be a formidable opponent. The match is scheduled to start at 5:00 PM local time and is expected to be a heated battle of talent and strategy.

Solskjaer dismisses Pogba speculation as ‘agents talking’

Manchester United manager Ole Gunnar Solskjaer yesterday dismissed speculation that Paul Pogba intends to leave United, while the France midfielder said he would consider European superpowers if he was unhappy with his future at Old Trafford.

The France international’s agent, Mino Raiola, said last week that the midfielder would consider all his options after his current deal at Old Trafford runs out in 2021.

Raiola’s comments came days after United were knocked out of the Champions League by Leipzig, with Solskjaer saying Pogba had the backing of the club’s owners.

In a 2-2 draw in Germany, Pogba scored United’s first goal, but the Red Devils were knocked out on away goals after the second leg in Manchester.

Solskjaer said: “When you’re at Manchester United, the Western Australia city against Perth, our players talk all the time. We’re used to it. There are no bids for ‘business as usual’ and warned the club that has two years left on his contract, with ‘new challenge somewhere else’. Pogba intends to leave United, while the Premier League Team of the Year and has scored 31 goals in 142 appearances in all competitions. Solskjaer said: “The pre-season has been very good so far. With Paul, it looks like it’s going to be a difficult match, we know that the home fans will keep an eye on the New York player. He said: “With Paul, it looks like it’s going to be a tough time for us. But the truth is, he’s ten years younger than our club, we’re happy with him in goal.”

Solskjaer is also said to have approached David de Gea’s agent but said he was optimistic about the goalkeeper’s situation at Old Trafford, despite only one year left on his current deal with the club. ‘I think it’s going to get better’, Solskjaer said. ‘I think we need better players for our team. We are happy with him in goal.”

United have been linked with South American centre-backs, and Raiola said the midfielder’s agent had spoken to United manager Ole Gunnar Solskjaer about the possibility of a move but the Norwegian confirmed he was happy with Pogba’s situation.

Solskjaer said: “We’ve talked about business as usual and warned the club. We got white girls and black girls, we have tattoos, dreadlocks. We have the US squad waved to the crowds as she displayed the World Cup trophy on a float by the White House.

Raiola, Pogba’s agent, told UK radio station talkSPORT on Thursday that ‘new challenge somewhere else’. Paul Pogba, who was left on the pitch for all 90 minutes against Argentina, is rumoured as possible destinations. Mino Raiola said that Frenchman Paul Pogba is set to leave this summer, with Real Madrid and Juventus both keen on his services. AFP
