SHOCKING NEWS:

Byju's replaces Oppo as India cricket team's sponsor

Bringing a smile to the faces of India's cricket fans, Byju's, the educational technology platform, has replaced Oppo as the India cricket team's jersey sponsor starting in September, replacing smartphone maker Oppo as the India cricket team's jersey sponsor.

The move comes as a response to the decision by the Bangladesh Cricket Board to pull out of the series due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The series, which was originally scheduled for January 2021, has been postponed due to the ongoing pandemic.

The change in sponsorship is expected to have a positive impact on the Indian cricket team, as Byju's is a well-known brand in India and is expected to provide significant support to the team.

The new series of games is expected to bring a fresh start to the India cricket team, and Byju's is expected to play a significant role in supporting the team's performance.

India's cricket team is looking to bounce back from a disappointing performance in the World Cup, where they were knocked out in the group stages.

Byju's, a leading educational technology platform in India, is expected to provide significant support to the team, and the move is expected to have a positive impact on the team's performance.

The new series of games is expected to bring a fresh start to the India cricket team, and Byju's is expected to play a significant role in supporting the team's performance.

Sane’s future out of reach, says Guardiola

Manchester City manager Pep Guardiola had told Patrick Kluivert to go back and fine-tune their preparations for the coming season.

Sane, who joined City from Schalke 04 in 2016, has been out for 13 months with a knee injury. The forward now needs to come around £22.5mn and a sense of regret for the money on a player who never scored a goal.

The former Charlotte manager Karl-Heinz Riedle had described his team’s performance against the Koreans as “something you are going to forget all the time”, before kicking off the defence of their World Cup title.

Arsenal sign Real Madrid’s Ceballos on loan and Etienne defender Saiba

By Sunny Cohen

Arsenal have completed the arrival of the Real Madrid midfielder, who joins on a season-long loan from Spain, bolstering the Gunners’ squad for their opening Premier League fixture of the season.

Ceballos, who arrived at the Emirates from Betis three years ago, will return to Spain at the end of the season.

Manchester United 2-1 Tottenham

Manchester United scored two late goals to beat Tottenham and claim the International Champions Cup trophy.

United took the lead in the fourth minute through Scott McTominay, who headed in a corner from Luke Shaw.

Tottenham equalised just before half-time when Kane scored from a free-kick.

The second goal came in the 83rd minute when McTominay headed in another corner from Shaw.

United manager Ole Gunnar Solskjaer said: “It was a tough game. We showed our quality and our team spirit.”

Tottenham manager Mauricio Pochettino said: “It was a tough game. We showed our quality and our team spirit.”

Solskjaer ‘hoping for best’ after Bailly stretched off

Manchester United manager Ole Gunnar Solskjaer was left ‘hoping for the best’ after Everton’s’ defender Eric Bailly was stretchered off in the 21st minute with an apparent knee injury.

Bailly, who joined United from Monaco for £31 million in 2017, was replaced by Phil Jones.

Bailly was apparently hurt on a challenge with Everton’s Cenk Tosun.

Bailly, who has struggled with injuries in recent years, was replaced after just 13 minutes.

Solskjaer said: “He’s a big player for us. We don’t know the extent of the injury yet.”

Bailly’s injury is a blow for Solskjaer, who was already without centre-backs Victor Lindelof and Harry Maguire.

Several United players were substituted during the game, including Diogo Dalot, who was replaced by Luke Shaw.
