Late Jantjies try gives Boks draw against All Blacks

Catching the ball late in the second half, utility backhand Ben de Klerk, whose clever kicking game to the corners was a common theme of the match, put the Springboks on top. The kick was a mere 10m out with the line wide open, but the Springboks struggled to convert.

As the Springboks celebrated, New Zealand carried that important try away from them but then undid the good work when they failed to convert.

A former world champion in middleweight and super-middleweight divisions, Chavez during his television career said his incident was enough to make you weep. "But my concern is much closer to my head, my watch and my wallet being snatched," he said.

The Brave Blossoms bagged the opening try via a penalty 52 minutes in and then added a second via a try from Deon Kayulu midway through the second half to seal the 26-20 victory.

Mexican Boxing legend Julio Cesar Chavez said he was mugged at gunpoint in Mexico City.

Mexico is currently suffering a spike in violent incidents.

"I'm so glad to win against All Blacks," Springboks centre Faf de Klerk said after winning their first-consecutive test match against the All Blacks, which they did in Wellington yesterday.

The Springboks maintained their lead until the final minute, when Handre Pollard tore their defences asunder with a brilliant conversion attempt to give them a 10-3 lead of the game.

'In a top-level match such as this, we had a very bad start.'

Real Madrid coach Zinedine Zidane admitted his La Liga rivals Real Madrid 7-3 LaLiga rivals Atletico Madrid in a friendly at MetLife Stadium.

Paris Saint-Germain will still be able to win the United States.

Inter were quicker out of the blocks forcing Porto to defend man-for-man. Against the backdrop of an Inter fans' 2-1 victory in the Italian capital, it was a much-needed win for Inter, who edged the penalties 6-5. The victory ends four years of waiting for Inter, after losing the Champions League final to Bayern Munich in 2010.

Neymar, linked with a move to Inter this summer, made it 3-1 after a superb solo run by Vitolo, who seized a pass through Real Madrid's defence for himself, before dribbling past defender Sergio Ramos and completing a superb solo run.

De Bruyne, Sterling on target in City win

Manchester City remained top of the Premier League with a 2-0 win over West Ham United at the Etihad Stadium.

Abdulla closes the gap on series leaders after fourth round

Abdulla’s closeness to the top spot in the FIA World Cup for Cross-Country Bajas makes him the obvious choice for the FIA’s top prize in the rally raid. He is currently fifth in the standings, just three points behind Mercedes’ Valtteri Bottas, who leads the series. Abdulla has been in top form in recent races, finishing second in the previous round in Abu Dhabi and seventh in the most recent round in the United Arab Emirates.

Abdulla’s success in the FIA World Cup for Cross-Country Bajas has been a testament to his hard work and dedication. He has been practicing with Charles Leclerc, who is currently second in the standings, and other Mercedes drivers to try and close the gap to Bottas.

However, Mercedes boss Toto Wolff recently said that the team needs a cure, as they have struggled in recent races to match Bottas’ pace. "We’re facing a lot of problems and it’s been difficult to get the car working properly," Wolff said. "I hope we can find a solution and make the car faster in the next race."

Despite the challenges, Abdulla remains confident that he can challenge for the title. "I’m happy with my performance and I’m working hard to keep improving," he said. "I think we can be competitive in the next round and I’m looking forward to it."
