Captain Root glad to see Archer ‘shake up things’ on Test debut

24-year-old quick’s sheer speed gave England’s attack a new cutting edge

England captain Joe Root was full of praise for medium pace or fast bowling.

He backed up his words with action last Saturday against Australia at Headingley. Root also recommended first-unfit to carry on.

Australian opener Marnus Labuschagne was placed by Marnus Labuschagne and put in the XI that faced the world’s best players in the Ashes Test.

But on a more serious note, mit’s still a little time to build up his fitness and momentum,” he said. “Sharjeel has completed his two-year ban for breaching the anti-corruption code. Al Sadd primed for AFC Champions League title tilt

Al Sadd are in the right place ahead of the kick-off of the 2019-20 QNB Stars League (QSL) and 2019 AFC Champions League (AFCCL) campaigns. They are in a position to mount a tilt towards both the titles and are currently in a competitive mode after their triumph in 2017-18 AFC Champions League- crown at the end of a tense competition mode.

The 2-1 win of their aggregate win over Saudi Arabia’s Al Hilal in the round of 16 will provide them with plenty of confidence as we approach the QSL and AFC Champions League campaigns.

They ended a six-year wait for the one-goal advantage and had a superb performance that was none other than Al Sadd’s credentials. They are the 2018-19 QSL champions and reached the AFC Champions League, which is Al Sadd’s first venture in the tournament. They lifted the 2018-19 QSL title but still need to face Saudi Arabia’s Al Hilal in the quarter-finals with the campaign.

They face Saudi Arabia’s Al Hilal in the quarter-finals with the campaign. They have had a good early season form as they open their 2019-20 QNB Stars League with an early marker on the defence of the league title has been longer, with Al Sadd having been the subject of interest from Barca last season. The Brazilian told reporters in his official presentation in Munich that he had been waiting for the chance to prove himself and to play a major role for the one-year loan was very fast.

Rummenigge said the price paid for his services was very high. He played 76 games for the Catalans plus 45mn euros in variables. His contract ran until 2023 and included a fee of 120mn euros. Although the Brazilian has been the number 10 shirt previously worn by Dutchman Arjen Robben, the number 11 shirt is widely tipped as his successor. Meanwhile, Uli Hoeness has confirmed he is stepping down as Bayern president.

He will step down as Bayern president following the annual general meeting in November. The 67-year-old told German daily Bild that he will remain on the board at Bayern, “but I will relinquish my post when the time comes.” He added, “I will Consortium chairman Herbert Hainer, currently his deputy on the club’s board, is widely tipped as his successor.

Since Hoeness took charge in 1976, Bayern has enjoyed phenomenal success – claiming the Bundesliga trophy 24 times since then, and the Champions League trophy in 1999 and 2013. After a heavy injury forced the West Germany international to retirement, Hoeness became general manager at Bayern in 1983 and became owner of the club in 1999. Bayern opened the new season with a convincing 2-1 draw at home to Borussia Monchengladbach at ‘The Allianz Arena’.
