Manchester: English League One side Barnsley have been given extra time by the Football League to resolve a takeover bid for the club and secure the finances to complete the season.

The first-round tie had to be abandoned on October 7 due to a positive test for Covid-19 of Barnsley's first-choice striker. Mount put Chelsea back in front in the second half but Chelsea manager Frank Lampard's side were held to a 1-1 draw by the Blades in the fifth minute.

The Board to agree to work with the parties to secure the survival of Barnsley and achieve an extra time to 'narrowly escape going down' the competition. The league season had been suspended and the EFL, until now, had refused to accept Allied Business Finance's offer.

Barca coach wants more from Griezmann as Messi doubltly faces Betis

Barca coach Ernesto Valverde has said he will not risk Lionel Messi in the game against Real Betis as the five-time Ballon d'Or winner again looks to have made up for his earlier error in the Champions League group stage.

Valverde has said he will not risk Messi in the game against Real Betis as the five-time Ballon d'Or winner again looks to have made up for his earlier error in the Champions League group stage.

Messi has been in the dark over any fresh bid for his sale since August 5 and missed the whole of last season's Champions League with a serious knee injury. His frustration continued into the 2019-20 season yesterday as the champion won 3-0 at Borussia Dortmund with a fre-kick to cap the scoring.

The German added that he was ready to come back to the Camp Nou "in a line-up that was without Enes Unal to storm the Madrid penalty box from a rollicking header that grazed the top of the goal. His frustration continued into the 2019-20 season yesterday as the champion won 3-0 at Borussia Dortmund with a fre-kick to cap the scoring."

The game was the same as last season, while French midfilder Adrien Rabiot was still recovering from pneumonia which will also see him miss next weekend's El Clasico against Real Madrid.

"People always make a lot out of the Dembele thing," Valverde said. "They must be marginally off side."

"If he is not 100 per cent, I think he will not play on Saturday," Tuchel said. "We need to improve at the level of fitness, but we are on the right track."

The Polish striker then curled home a free-kick for the fourth goal of the game, cancelling out Ruben Vargas' early opener and Bremen had a player sent off.

But despite Tuchel's side having a 93rd minute lead, Leverkusen found the back of Kingsley Coman and Saul Niguez, who was the difference maker in the first half.
