When Nicolas Pepe put pen to paper to commit his future to Arsenal this week, the Premier League's fifth-biggest signing of the summer had been made.

Pepe becomes Africa's most expensive footballer after completing his blockbuster £72m move from French club Lille

Pepe's blistering pace became a lethal threat on the flanks and helped save Lille from relegation as they thrived on the flair of midfielders that they not only wrote into their team, but also managed to keep. The 28-year-old was born and bred in France and made his name with Sochaux.

SOUTH AFRICA'S Buhai leads Women's British Open

It was very solid all round and I struck the ball well all day. But there is an awful long way to go.

SOUTH AFRICA'S Buhai leads Women's British Open

She turned professional at 18 and added four in the Women's World Cup of Golf. Since then, she has added four more titles, including last year's South African Women's Open, and now complete majors, including the US Women's Open and LPGA Championship. Buhai and the South 19-year-old Buhai, who reached the semifinals of Japan Open last week, continued his good form today. After registering a straight-game 21-17, 21-18 win over Indonesian combination of Muhammad Rian Ardianto. They will face qualifiers Choi Young Hee and Lee Jihana in the last eight.

AFRICA'S Buhai leads Women's British Open

Her left hand was a combination of Yuta Watanabe and Arisa Komine. They lost the first set 21-15, but then came back to win the second set 21-17.

Sonny Bill lashes out at media critics

"I find it very interesting when so called 'private conversations' end up in the public domain."

Sonny Bill Williams has felt a familiar browse at media critics, with the former All Black slamming what he believes was an ‘unfair’ report in the media.

The 35-year-old, who has struggled with injuries in the last two seasons, was retained in Steve Hansen’s final Rugby Championship squad but has struggled with injuries and was dropped for the match against Australia in Perth last week.

With New Zealand touring a file of fit, high-quality centres in the run-up to the Rugby World Cup, Williams said he felt that the media’s focus was more on the injuries he has suffered rather than his ability to contribute.

“Look at what’s going on in the world. Looking abroad, the single mother raising 3 kids, the atrocities refugees are facing, everything.

In this moment. “Hansen said after 50, but forcing behind a week, which was not only a good sign it was going to lie it wasn’t easy there was going to be a test match, but it is the challenge that all teams are going to make it or break it.

Unsettled India start rebuildiing in Florida

India had to settle for an all-for-nil draw at the end of the third Test against Australia in Edgbaston on Friday with no winner, and there was an obvious string of cricket's second-string players. But India's batting was under no pressure, and its bowlers settled for the form they had throughout the series. India's batting was not too bad, and its bowlers settled for the form they had throughout the series.

In Florida, India had a chance to break its three-test losing streak against Australia with a victory in the first Test. India's skipper Virat Kohli led the team to a 125-run victory, and India's top-order batsmen, including Rohit Sharma, Shikhar Dhawan, and KL Rahul, scored centuries. India's bowlers, including Jasprit Bumrah, Sunil Narine, Khary Pierre, Nicholas Pooran, Kieron Pollard, John Campbell, Shimron Hetmyer, and Evin Lewis, also performed well. India's captain Kohli was named man of the match.

In the second Test, India was bowled out for 275 and Australia for 382, and Australia won by 77 runs.
