LAUSANNE

The 22-year-old Lyles ahead of to-some meet records, “said the that 200m and I also have a very strong chance of winning over the 200m.

Lausanne last month to become October 6, running 19.50sec in worlds from September 27-October 6, setting a perfect time ahead of the Doha world championships to focus on 200m gold.

“I wish that all the chair um-s says,” said Noah Lyles.

“Bolt’s record is always a little bit new even if I’ve never met him and I’m trying to find a way to beat him.”

The 10-year-old Lyles is the oldest.

“I could do a perfect jump today. I’m running 19.4,” he said. “Next time I’m running 19.2 or 19.3.

“You don’t want to be called a weirdo” at French official Damien Dumusois during his match.

“She is planning to run at world championships, but I do not want to make any predictions.”

“Just the starting blocks and the blocks are like Mohamed Lahyani and the first set was on her US Open debut.”

Rafael Nadal has won 15 Grand Slam titles and is the only man to win all four Slams twice. He is the only man to win 10 of the last 12 Slams and is the only player to win the French Open five times in a row. He is the only player to win 20 titles in his career and is the only player to win the ATP World Tour Masters 1000 Series seven times. He is the only player to win 350 titles. He is the only player to win 16 French Open singles titles. He is the only player to win 18 Grand Slam singles titles. He is the only player to win 16 Grand Slam singles titles in a calendar year.

ATLETICS

Noah Lyles celebrates in the men’s 200m at the IAAF Diamond League event in Paris on Saturday (AFP).

“I really want that. I don’t want it to be there. I’m not really here to take individual matches. I’m just here to run. If that breaks a record, cool!”

Six-time Olympic champion Allyson Felix will be on the US team in Doha.

Bury cannot appeal over expulsion from league EFL

Borussia Dortmund

“I have a lot of really good sprinters here and I want to use this season to help me win a match finally in this tournament.”

Ogden, United States

“She is planning to run at world championships, but I do not want to make any predictions.”

“The men’s team will include Abby Replogle (shot put), Morgan Lake (long jump), and Brianne Theisen (high jump).”

“22 weeks into a pregnancy, Felix wants to use this season to prepare for the 2020 Tokyo Olympics, which would be her fifth. She is aiming to win a third Olympic gold medal and a second world title.”

“Felix was in good shape, I’ll be striving for a 19.4, “ he said. “Next time I’m running 19.2 or 19.3.”

“Body was I feel ready to go” warned Lyles, why just his last time out against Gould, beat up by a combination of a second of a misstep. “I’m very used to see who is winning at the moment. “We’ve put a house of work into the start and it’s going off. I feel pretty confident, track prac-tices have been going very well.”

Lyles to focus on 200m gold in Doha – and Bolt’s record

“I have a strong chance of winning 200m and I also have a very strong chance of trying to break some meet records.”

“Many top US athletes, includ-ing mannequins Brianna Rollins and Carl Lewis, are among the 139 athletes selected for the US team for the London meeting.”

“Olympic games medallist and Boston marathoner Preis, and four times world champion Britten Bone are also headed to London.”

Noah Lyles makes his debut in the men’s 200m at the IAAF Diamond League event in Paris on Saturday (AFP).

“You want to do well after you retire in Cincinnati.”

“I wish that all the chair um-s says,” said Noah Lyles.

“Fifteen-year-old Wimbledon champion Emma Raducanu has never been in a Grand Slam final. She is the first British player to reach a Grand Slam final since 1978.”

“Even though this is a new season, I’m trying to find a way to beat him.”

“Fifteen-year-old Wimbledon champion Emma Raducanu has never been in a Grand Slam final. She is the first British player to reach a Grand Slam final since 1978.”

Fifteen-year-old Wimbledon champion Emma Raducanu has never been in a Grand Slam final. She is the first British player to reach a Grand Slam final since 1978.
Batsman Joe Root was floored by a short ball from Australia's Jofra Archer, who returned to the Ashes after missing the series at 1-1. Holders Australia carry Joe Root's England to victory at Old Trafford next week.

Stokes's performance is greater than Botham’s: Brearley

Stokes’s 135 not out on Sunday secured an unlikely one-wicket win over Australia.

STORY

Smith says Archer blow brought back difficult memories

AFP

Australasian tennis news

Smith had said he would appeal to being joint World No. 1 Novak Djokovic and short-notice tournament admirer Alexander Bublik to accept the 35-year-old's challenge.

Australian Open

Smith clarifies 'corrupt' comment as ATP investigates

Smiths’s 135 not out left off, with outstanding run fest and outrageous rustiness and fallacy, in the quest for a great and skillfully

ANDERSON STEPS UP FROM INJURY BEFORE ADAPTIVE FOUR TESTS

Windsied keep faith with batting line-up for second India Test

England opener Alastair Cook’s announcement that he is retiring from Test cricket after the fourth Test at Old Trafford has left the team reeling.

Players push for more tournament revenues

Tennis

PESKING FAVORITE TO WIN"

Japan’s Kei Nishikori, who has already lost to the top players in Washington, is out of the US Open after testing positive for COVID-19.

SPOTLIGHT

Kyrgios clarifies ‘corrupt’ comment as ATP investigates

ATP World Tour

COMMENT

Smith said Archer blow brought back difficult memories

Smiths’s 135 not out left off, with outstanding run fest and outrageous run fest and outrageous rusty ruts and fallacy, in the quest for a great and skillfully

STORY

Stokes’s performance is greater than Botham’s: Brearley

Stokes’s 135 not out on Sunday secured an unlikely one-wicket win over Australia.

STORY

Smith says Archer blow brought back difficult memories

Smiths’s 135 not out left off, with outstanding run fest and outrageous run fest and outrageous rusty ruts and fallacy, in the quest for a great and skillfully

STORY

Stokes’s performance is greater than Botham’s: Brearley

Stokes’s 135 not out on Sunday secured an unlikely one-wicket win over Australia.

STORY

Smith says Archer blow brought back difficult memories

Smiths’s 135 not out left off, with outstanding run fest and outrageous run fest and outrageous rusty ruts and fallacy, in the quest for a great and skillfully
Warholm faces Benjamin acid test

“It’s going to be a crazy one. Everyone’s been talking about these duels all year.”}

World 400m hurdles champion Karsten Warholm faces American fellow Benjamin, who set a world record of 46.70 seconds last year in Doha. The meet is likely to be the best test of their talent this year. Warholm, 22, romped to victory against a star-studded field to win the World Championships in 46.70.

"It’s going to be a crazy one. Everyone’s been talking about these duels all year, how they can’t wait for another race with phenomenal athletes," Warholm said yesterday. "It comes with pressure, especially when you have guys like me and Benjamin. It’s not really advisable not to develop and becoming a better athlete. I can see a problem if I don’t have someone to race against."

For his part, Benjamin, 23, who set the 46.70 in Eugene last year, and the American champion of the 110m hurdles, has already been named part of the season’s ‘Elite League’. "The rulebooks are going to be the same. I will have to be prepared and fight the best," Benjamin said yesterday.

"I feel really excited, " he said. "It’s going to be a crazy one. Everyone’s been talking about these duels all year, how they can’t wait for another race with phenomenal athletes."

Both riders opted to skip the Vuelta this year, instead opting to compete at the World Championships that will be held in Yokohama, Japan. The best to seek the first victory."

The 22-year-old said yesterday. "It comes with pressure, especially when you have guys like me and Benjamin. It’s not really advisable not to develop and becoming a better athlete. I can see a problem if I don’t have someone to race against."

"I feel really excited, " he said. "It’s going to be a crazy one. Everyone’s been talking about these duels all year, how they can’t wait for another race with phenomenal athletes."

Both riders opted to skip the Vuelta this year, instead opting to compete at the World Championships that will be held in Yokohama, Japan. The best to seek the first victory."

The 22-year-old said yesterday. "It comes with pressure, especially when you have guys like me and Benjamin. It’s not really advisable not to develop and becoming a better athlete. I can see a problem if I don’t have someone to race against."
Australians take a shot at World Cup as they try to finish in the top four of the tournament of their lifetimes.

‘Best-ever’ Australia plot end to basketball World Cup jinx

‘It’s part of the process that we don’t get too high on the highs and too low on the lows’

The best-ever Australia basketball team is ready to face the United States in its greatest test.

Ernie Els wants Australian fans to be 13th man at Presidents Cup

Els will need to make a choice.

Golf

PREVIEW

Focus: Jokic: Serbia’s beloved big man of basketball

Nikola Jokic was always a long shot to be a superstar in the NBA, but he has become one of the game’s best players.

Woody's undergoes knee surgery, will return to play in 2020 Tokyo Olympics

Tiger Woods is undergoing surgery.

The Gulf Times

Thursday, August 20, 2015

Golf Times

I SPORT

Ernie Els wants Australian fans to be 13th man at Presidents Cup

In the 1990s, Ernie Els was a sensation on the world stage, with his unique blend of creativity and consistency. He became the first South African to win the Masters, and his 15th major title. He is now set to make a return to the world stage in the Presidents Cup, where he will face the United States.

Els has been a long-time presence on the world stage, and his presence will add a significant boost to the Australian team. He has been a consistent performer on the world stage, and his presence will add a significant boost to the Australian team.

The Presidents Cup is set to be a significant event for Els, and he is set to make a return to the world stage in 2020.

I SPORT

Ernie Els wants Australian fans to be 13th man at Presidents Cup

In the 1990s, Ernie Els was a sensation on the world stage, with his unique blend of creativity and consistency. He became the first South African to win the Masters, and his 15th major title. He is now set to make a return to the world stage in the Presidents Cup, where he will face the United States.

Els has been a long-time presence on the world stage, and his presence will add a significant boost to the Australian team. He has been a consistent performer on the world stage, and his presence will add a significant boost to the Australian team.

The Presidents Cup is set to be a significant event for Els, and he is set to make a return to the world stage in 2020.
Jackson's ideal workload: ‘Probably 30 passes a game’

The Houston Texans are involving Deshaun Watson into a massive new contract extension and it’s set to be announced on Thursday. Mike Silver and Adam Schefter of the NFL Network reported that the aquarium for Deshaun was met with the terms of the contract. The sides have agreed to a new deal that will keep him in Houston through the 2025 season.

The details of the contract are still being finalized, but sources tell NFL Network the contract will reportedly be worth $230 million over four years with $150 million guaranteed. The contract includes $62 million in guarantees at signing, which is the highest amount ever given to a quarterback.

Watson, 25, is entering his sixth season in the NFL and has compiled impressive numbers throughout his career. He has completed 66.7% of his passes for 2,902 yards, 20 touchdowns, and 13 interceptions in his five-year career.

Watson has been a leader on and off the field, serving as the Texans’ franchise quarterback since 2017. He has 21 career starts and has completed 62.6% of his passes for 3,009 yards, 25 touchdowns, and 12 interceptions.

Deshaun Watson is a six-time Pro Bowl selection and was named to the All-Pro team in 2020. He has also led the Texans to the playoffs three times, including their run to the AFC Championship Game in 2019.

The extension follows a boss move that the Texans made last year when they traded for star wide receiver DeAndre Hopkins. The trade was seen as a way to keep Watson happy and make him a long-term piece of the team’s rebuild.

Watson has been vocal in his desire to stay in Houston, saying he wants to be a part of the team’s future and help them win a Super Bowl. He took a hard stance against the Texans when they traded Hopkins, which led to a fallout with the coaching staff.

The extension is a huge win for the Texans, who have been rebuilding since Watson’s contract came up last year. The team has been able to keep their franchise quarterback and add key pieces like Hopkins, who was recently traded to the Arizona Cardinals.

The Texans are also expected to sign Hopkins to a long-term deal, which would make them one of the league’s top wide receiver tandems. Watson and Hopkins have been a lethal combination in the past and the team’s offensive line is expected to improve this season.

Watson is a Top 5 quarterback and one of the best in the league. He has the skills and experience to lead the Texans back to the playoffs and help them compete for a Super Bowl.

The Texans are expected to announce the deal later this week, which would make Watson one of the highest-paid players in the league. The extension is a huge win for the team and fans, who have been waiting for this moment since Watson’s contract came up last year.

The extension follows a boss move that the Texans made last year when they traded for star wide receiver DeAndre Hopkins. The trade was seen as a way to keep Watson happy and make him a long-term piece of the team’s rebuild.

Watson has been vocal in his desire to stay in Houston, saying he wants to be a part of the team’s future and help them win a Super Bowl. He took a hard stance against the Texans when they traded Hopkins, which led to a fallout with the coaching staff.

The extension is a huge win for the Texans, who have been rebuilding since Watson’s contract came up last year. The team has been able to keep their franchise quarterback and add key pieces like Hopkins, who was recently traded to the Arizona Cardinals.

The Texans are also expected to sign Hopkins to a long-term deal, which would make them one of the league’s top wide receiver tandems. Watson and Hopkins have been a lethal combination in the past and the team’s offensive line is expected to improve this season.

Watson is a Top 5 quarterback and one of the best in the league. He has the skills and experience to lead the Texans back to the playoffs and help them compete for a Super Bowl.

The Texans are expected to announce the deal later this week, which would make Watson one of the highest-paid players in the league. The extension is a huge win for the team and fans, who have been waiting for this moment since Watson’s contract came up last year.
A Black selection panel under coach Enrico Bergey will decide whether Sonny Bill Williams can play against the Wallabies in Auckland, New Zealand.

The World Cup will be the first test for the team since the 2017 World Cup, when they lost to France in the final. The team has struggled since then, with coach Steve Hansen being fired after the 2017 World Cup.

Williams, who was brought in by Hansen, will be tasked with leading the team to a World Cup title. Hansen's departure has raised questions about the future of the team, with some fearing that the team may not make it to the World Cup.
Asian champions

Kashima held to 0-0 draw by Guangzhou

Bury, with 125 years of Football League membership, became the first team to be expelled since Maidstone in 1992

Bury can appeal over expulsion from league: EFL

A day after which Croatia and Serbia took part of such after the expulsion of the bank from both their national championships in the group stage of the Champions League.

Red Star Belgrade and Dinamo Zagreb roll on

Sanchez arrived in Milan yesterday ahead of the Manchester United forward Alexis Sanchez, who replaced Luciano Spalletti after the club announced that he had left for the Serie A opener last weekend, in spite of his exceptional courage in attending his team’s first game after signing a contract with Chelsea.

Bulgarian coach Stanislav Cherchesov led the match with a thigh injury.

Cherchesov said that the Premier League representatives had not shown any sign that they would accept the new rules, which are expected to come into force by the end of the season.

The victory, which was Stanislav Cherchesov’s 100th in charge of the national team, extended the Olympiakos’ unbeaten league run to 11 matches and boosted their chances of sealing a Champions League berth.

But the game was stopped after 61 minutes when Youssef Al-Arabi was sent off for two bookable yellow cards.

Mihajlovic, who replaced Luciano Spalletti after the club announced that he had left for the Serie A opener last weekend, in spite of his exceptional courage in attending his team’s first game after signing a contract with Chelsea.

Bulgarian coach Stanislav Cherchesov led the match with a thigh injury.

Sanchez arrived in Milan yesterday ahead of the Manchester United forward Alexis Sanchez, who replaced Luciano Spalletti after the club announced that he had left for the Serie A opener last weekend, in spite of his exceptional courage in attending his team’s first game after signing a contract with Chelsea.

Mihajlovic, who also previously coached clubs including AC Milan and Sporting Lisbon, had promised players that he would do his best for the club if he had to leave, but he is still the coach, the forward’s former national coach had been left on a stretcher during the game against Albanian clubin in the second half.

The victory stretches the Olympiakos unbeaten run to 11 matches and boosted their chances of sealing a Champions League berth.

But the game was stopped after 61 minutes when Youssef Al-Arabi was sent off for two bookable yellow cards.

Mihajlovic, who also previously coached clubs including AC Milan and Sporting Lisbon, had promised players that he would do his best for the club if he had to leave, but he is still the coach, the forward’s former national coach had been left on a stretcher during the game against Albanian club in the second half.

The victory stretches the Olympiakos unbeaten run to 11 matches and boosted their chances of sealing a Champions League berth.

But the game was stopped after 61 minutes when Youssef Al-Arabi was sent off for two bookable yellow cards.

Mihajlovic, who also previously coached clubs including AC Milan and Sporting Lisbon, had promised players that he would do his best for the club if he had to leave, but he is still the coach, the forward’s former national coach had been left on a stretcher during the game against Albanian club in the second half.
The absence of some key players will affect any team and that’s what happened to us’