CRICKET / 1ST ASHES TEST

Burns’ maiden Test century frustrates Australia

It was aMade a 144-ball ton during the first day of the first Ashes Test at Edgbaston in Birmingham and the former captain’s first Test since a year-long suspension for his ball-tampering scandal.

The former captain’s return was not without controversy, however, as he was booed on his way to the crease, but went on to score 144 runs later left to applause from a crowd of over 25,000.

England captain Joe Root had cashed in as he too, like Burns, was consequently left with a new tailender, “It is not easy to the fill the hole that Burns has left in our batting line-up,” he wrote. “We believe Jason is capable of good performances at this level and win games for us.”

Mohamed replaces injured Russell in Windies T20 squad

The two sides will also contest three ODIs and two T20s in Australia in 2019-20.

The first two T20s against India will be held in Melbourne and Sydney on Saturday 30 November and

The second two T20s against India will likely be held later in the year, possibly in the Caribbean. The Windies are currently playing in the ICC World Cup in England, which they will hope to win.

Canelo loses IBF belt after title defence deal collapses

Los Angeles

Midweek world

Boxer Canelo Alvarez has been stripped of his IBF world title belt after missing a voluntary training camp and failing to sign a contract with promoter Oscar De La Hoya regarding a title fight with Ukraine's Usyk.

"We are extremely disappointed at the IBF for forcing the world's best fighter to relinquish his world title belt and his mandatory challenge," DeLaHoy said in a statement.

Alvarez, who also holds the World Boxing Association and World Boxing Council titles, has been a long-time rival to the unbeaten Usyk. The IBF had reserved the right to declare interim title holder Billy Joe Saunders champion.

"We offered his (Usyk's) team a range of options that would allow Canelo a fair hearing. He chose not to accept them," DeLaHoy said.

"This is an insult to boxing and more importantly an insult to the boxing fans of the world."

'Complete' Ronaldo above everyone else for India's Kohli

India's captain Virat Kohli, a co-owner of an Indian Super League soccer franchise, enjoys cult status in cricket-country India and fans from all over the world follow him across Instagram, Facebook and Twitter.

Johannesburg: Cristiano Ronaldo may not be the most popular footballer in South Africa at the moment, but he is an ardent fan in India cricket captain Virat Kohli, who changes his WhatsApp profile picture every time the Portugal forward is transferred.

Ronaldo has donated the global football limelight away for a while, with each new addition to the base of their collection looking magnificent every time. Mohammed bin Abdulrahman Al-Attiyah (right), president of Asian and QREC vice chairman, with Duke of Richmond at the Qatar Goodwood Festival.

India's cricket captain Virat Kohli, a co-owner of an Indian Super League soccer franchise, enjoys cult status in cricket-country India and fans from all over the world follow him across Instagram, Facebook and Twitter.

Ronaldo is considered to be the best footballer in the world and Kohli is no different. "He inspires me," Kohli stated. "For me, Cristiano is above everyone else. His commitment and work ethic is unmatched. He is a true professional and a role model for people around the world."

"He is also a leader and I see that. Absolutely love it. He has amazing balance and a fantastic shooting technique."

The Portugal forward has a huge following across the globe, following his appearances on social media and international media outlets.
