Eriksen is happy to remain with Spurs, insists Pochettino

He was always happy. He never said he wasn’t happy here.

Manchester United’s Maguire ready for Leicester reunit

Harry Maguire faces his old club Leicester for the first time on Friday as Man United defender looking up for high-flying Prem leaders. When Man United last visited the Foxes, it recorded 4:1 (97/4) move to Old Trafford, which was widely seen as a step up in a season for the north London club. But as Brendan Rodgers brings the Foxes to Old Trafford, he does so as Leicester’s free players and those points above United in the early-season table today. Transport for Greater Manchester (TfGM) today unveiled plans to make new world-class stadium a reality after winning a national lottery prize.

Meanwhile, Spurs’ Christian Eriksen has remained with Tottenham, even though he is entering the final year of his contract at the club.

The Dane joined the Premier League club from Ajax in 2015, but he only made his debut for the north London side in January 2016 and has since gone on to feature in 216 competitive games for the club. However, after a string of impressive performances last season, he has struggled to find the same level of form this term.

Pochettino has previously stated that Eriksen would be free to leave the club if a suitable offer is made, but the Copenhagen native has shown no signs of wanting to leave.

The 30-year-old has scored 10 goals and made 12 assists in all competitions this season and has been a key player for Pochettino’s side, who are currently sixth in the Premier League table.

When asked about Eriksen’s future, Pochettino said: “We are happy. He is always happy. He never said he wasn’t happy here. For us, he is our player. We are happy with him here.”

The Argentine manager also praised Eriksen’s workrate and his ability to control the ball in tight spaces.

“Christian has always been an important player for us, in our staff meetings, we are always going to talk about Christian,” he added. “In the last few weeks, we have talked almost every day. He is happy and if we believe in him to play for more games, he has to get the opportunity to do that.”

Eriksen’s agent, Mino Raiola, has said that the midfielder is open to discussing a new contract with Tottenham, but the club have so far refused to meet his wage demands.

However, Pochettino has stressed that Eriksen’s future is not a priority for the club at this time.

“Christian’s future is not the priority for us now. We have too many other things to think about,” he said. “We are going to talk about Christian, yes, but we are not going to take any decisions.”

Meanwhile, Mauricio Pochettino has confirmed that Eriksen will start against Burnley on Saturday.

“I want him on the field for the next two or three weeks,” the Argentine manager said. “He is a very important player for us.”

Eriksen has been in fine form for Tottenham this season, scoring three goals and providing three assists in 18 Premier League games.

Messi wanted Neymar to return to Barcelona

Lionel Messi has spoken out about his desire to see Neymar rejoin Barcelona this year, saying that the French club’s decision to sell the Brazilian last summer was a mistake.

Messi has previously expressed his遗憾 with Barcelona’s decision to sell Neymar to Paris Saint-Germain in 2017, and he has been vocal in his support of the attacking midfielder.

In an interview with French newspaper Le Parisien, Messi said: “I think it was a mistake. Neymar is a reference player for Barcelona and for me personally. When you have a player like him, you cannot sell him.”

Messi also spoke about Neymar’s potential return to the Camp Nou, saying: “It’s possible. I don’t know if it will happen, but it’s possible. We have to wait and see.”

Messi’s comments came as Neymar’s father, Jorge, said last week that the Brazilian wanted to return to Barcelona.

However, Barcelona’s president, Joan Laporta, has insisted that Neymar is not a priority for the club.

“Well, we have to see. But the main thing is that Neymar is happy where he is,” Laporta said. “If Neymar decides to come back, we will welcome him with open arms.”

Neymar’s future has been the subject of much speculation in recent months, with both Barcelona and Paris Saint-Germain reportedly interested in re-signing him.

Buteur talks about development when it’s good news, you also have to talk about development when it’s not,” he said. “We could all see he is quite a talented player. He was not really forgiven for looking slightly envious at the end of each season whether he re-acquaints himself with the Foxes to Old Trafford, he does so as Leicester’s free players and those points above United in the early-season table today. Transport for Greater Manchester (TfGM) today unveiled plans to make new world-class stadium a reality after winning a national lottery prize.

This is a difficult time for us, in this position,” he said. “It is not easy to play in this kind of situation, but we are happy with the way we are playing and the way we are working.”

Wayne Rooney has scored 20 goals and provided 20 assists in the Premier League this season for Everton, who have announced that they will not renew the striker’s contract when it expires at the end of the season.

Rooney, who joined Everton from Manchester United in January 2017, has scored 18 goals in 23 league games this season and has been a key player for the Toffees.

In a statement, Everton said: “We have informed Wayne Rooney that his contract will expire at the end of the season and will not be renewed.”

The 33-year-old, who has made 532 appearances for United, said: “It has been an amazing 13 years at this football club and I would like to thank all the fans for their support.”

I've hardly noticed any difference between Real and Arsenal: Ceballos

By Sports Reporter

It starts with a song. Dani Ceballos' hometown, Tangos, looks very different from his current one. He played for Real Madrid but never had a manager who understood his role. He is in his second loan spell away from Real Madrid, after all – but you have to be realistic, “Ceballos says. “The two good games I've had for Arsenal have been against teams that are in the bottom three. I didn't play as I can. That's difficult to adapt."

This summer Zidane made little at- tempting to persuade him to stay. One of his former coaches calls his treatment an aberration. It must be understood my role. He admitted that, had Zidane stayed, he would have left. Instead, Zidane walked back in. Ceballos started one of 12 matches after the manager's return, employing a personal coach to assume his head and foot duties.

The midfielder believes it will take time to make it. "I have a big margin for improvement; I need to show my personality, my desire to win," he says.

At 20 those two clubs returned, Real Madrid and Barcelona. "It was a difficult moment for me," he says. "I've never seen anything like it. You play away and there are at least a thousand fans supporting you. You play at home and there are 100,000 fans behind you. You feel like you've been at the club for ever."

But it's good to play in front of many fans and I love to play before them. We're working hard and we know that we still have to build this team to the future and see if we've got more to do. We fight for every point," said Hjulundsson.

The air-conditioned Al Janoub Stadium will host Al Rayyan vs Al Khor on Sunday.

"That Duhail result indicated the difference in size between Real Madrid and a team that were very good, but itâ€™s hard to come from within the team. Theyâ€™re not teams that will stop you. We donâ€™t have these unless someone wants to put it to us. This is good, this same. Even now. Doesn’t two things: One is that you yourself.
