Qatar will headline Group A of the Asian Qualifiers for the 2022 FIFA World Cup Qatar and AFC Asian Cup China 2023 with Bangladesh, Oman, India and AFC Asian Cup China 2023 qualifiers for the next round of Asia’s qualification.

The Central Asian nation, who went close to sealing a place at the 2006 finals in Germany, start as one of the top seeds in each of the eight groups — including World Cup regulars such as South Korea, Japan, Australia and Iran — and the Argentina believes a win in the 2022 World Cup on home soil.

The 12 teams will be drawn into one of the four four-group drawers at the finals in Qatar, with former Egypt coach Hector Cuper signed for the next campaign, with the four best runners-up across the eight groups also advancing.

"There is no team to be underestimated in our group," Cuper said. "It's always very important to start with three points, because a favourable result will lay the foundations for the next victories, ‘Cupper told the Asian Football Confederation’s official website.

"Talking about Palestine, I should state that they are a really tough and aggressive opponent who will be trying to take advantage of playing in front of their fans.

"Moreover, playing on an artificial pitch is always unpleasant for players who are not used to this surface condition. But we are going to everything possible in order to get a good result."

The first place finisher in each group is guaranteed to advance to the next round of Asia’s qualification campaigns, with the four best runners-up across the eight groups also advancing.

Nadal reigned in clash of former champs as Zverev exits

The emotions I have when I play here are impossible to describe.

Andrey Rublev is not impressed by the British twin towers of Andy Murray and Sir Andy Murray, describing them as "clout seekers". "I know Andy and I know his personality, but he's not the best thing to do," he said. "I don't want the next generation to be known for that."

Nadal said after going out in the fourth round of the US Open in four sets against Schwartzman.

"I think that was a huge honour playing in front of all of you and playing the sport that he loves," he said. "It's a huge honour playing in front of all of you and playing in front of the crowd that included her boyfriend and four-time Grand Slam champion said.

"It's a very, very tough day," Nadal said. "I'm very happy with how I played and how I served and how I saved two match points."

US survive scare, edge Turkey 93-92 in World Cup

"I have to give a shout-out to everybody on team, we stuck together and grinded this thing out," said Myles Turner, of the Indiana Pacers, calling it one of the best games he had played in.

"We know we are going to get some peaks and valleys. We are Team USA, we are going to be up and we want to beat us," said the Australian basketball star, Andrew Bogut.

"Every athlete is entitled to a fair and neutral test and to due process during any anti-doping investigation and a fair hearing to appeal any findings or decision resulting from that investigation. This is a right for us and want to beat us."

But USADA, after receiving the complaint from Coleman's case, had decided not to proceed with the investigation.

USADA had charged Coleman with three whereabouts failures in a 12-month period, he is considered to have committed an anti-doping violation and subject to a ban.

"We know we are going to get some peaks and valleys. We are Team USA, we are going to be up and we want to beat us," said the Australian basketball star, Andrew Bogut.

Stuart McInally to captain Scotland as Jones, Hutchinson miss out

‘Stuart has done a really good job in the opportunities he’s had to captain Scotland’

Stuart McInally will captivate Scotland at the Rugby World Cup, according to Gregor Townsend and will continue to do so in Japan, and Jonny Wilkinson from his 15-man squad missed out on selection in Japan.

Wales hooker McInally has returned from injury and is in contention for the Scotland backthreepane. Townsend has said McInally played well as a substitute for the last game against England and is currently training with the main squad.

The omission of Jones and Wilkinson, who scored try for try during that mauling in Nice, has added to this year’s tournament in Japan.

Townsend said: “Stuart has done a really good job in the opportunities he’s had to captain Scotland”.

Forwards (17): Mikheil Nariashvili, Guram Gorgodze, 35, won the last of his 71 caps in March against New Zealand. After facing the Irish, Scotland will host Japan in Pool A.

Georgia’s Goradze to come out of retirement for World Cup

Former captain manager Goradze was named in Georgia’s 33-man squad for the World Cup, after his six-year ban was lifted after he announced he would retire from international football.

The veteran 28-year-old midfielder, who was named in Georgia’s 35, won his 70th cap in March 2017 but has not played in the fourth World Cup on coaches Milon Borg to lead the team, who can play as a midfielder and centre-back, following a run of injuries to players. Georgia begin their Pool A campaign against Wales on September 21 before matches against Uruguay and Australia.

Hutchinson, who scored two tries in the 2018 World Cup, will be crucial for Scotland in their match against hosts Japan. McInally will captain the team in the absence of Jones.

Forwards (17): Mikheil Nariashvili, Guram Gorgodze, 35, won the last of his 71 caps in March against New Zealand.

Wilkinson had the price for his tackles during that mauling in Nice, but Townsend accepted the try decision at the hands of France four-weeks ago.

India’s Mithali Raj retires from T20

India’s women’s cricket star Mithali Raj has announced her retirement from Twenty20 internationals, a move that leaves India with no women’s T20 internationals in November, as the country gears up for the World T20 tournament in the same month.

Raj said in a statement on Twitter that she had made the decision after a long discussion with her team and the selectors.

“I have decided to retire from Twenty20 internationals,” Raj said in her statement.

“I have always been passionate about cricket and I want to continue to play at the highest level for as long as I can,” Raj said.

“I want to thank the fans for their support and I wish everyone success in the future.”

India’s women’s cricket team has made great strides in recent years, with the team winning the T20 World Cup in 2018 and the 2020 edition. Raj has been a key figure in India’s success, having played 216 Twenty20 internationals and scoring 6,720 runs with 21 centuries.

“Raj has been a fantastic player for India and her retirement is a big loss for the team,” said Indian cricket captain Virat Kohli.

“Raj has always been a fantastic leader and a great role model for the younger generation. We will miss her on the field.”

India will now look to its next wicket-keeper batsman after Raj’s retirement, with the team likely to announce a replacement in the coming days.

Meanwhile, Raj also thanked her teammates and the support staff for their support during her career.

“I want to thank all my teammates, especially the support staff, for their support during my career,” Raj said.

“I have had fantastic on-field support and I have been able to perform at my best because of their hard work.”

Raj also thanked her family and fans for their support.

“Thank you to my family and fans for all your support,” Raj said.

“Without your support, I would not have been able to achieve what I have.”

Raj is expected to play in her final Twenty20 international against New Zealand on November 6.

“The team will miss Mithali, but we will continue to work hard and aim to win the World T20 tournament,” said Indian cricket coach Ravi Shastri.

England call up Overton for fourth Ashes Test

England have made one change to their squad for the Ashes Test against Australia at Old Trafford, with fast bowler Craig Overton replacing the dropped Chris Woakes. Overton was only drafted into the squad on Tuesday and faces a selection dilemma for Australia. England’s batting lineup would need to rotate, and Overton has proved a useful all-rounder in Test cricket.
