Doha 2030 presents vision for a magical Asian Games

‘If we are awarded the great honour of hosting the Asian Games, I can assure you that we will deliver a magical Games’

By Sports Reporter

T he Doha 2030 Asian Games Bid Committee yesterday presented to the OCA Evaluation Committee its plan to deliver a celebration of sport, culture, and dynamic environment that is measured not in new venues but in better lives.

Doha 2030 Chairman HE Sheikh Joaan bin Hamad bin Khalifa al-Thani welcomed the Evaluation Committee to Doha and said: “It is an honour to welcome the OCA Evaluation Committee to Doha. As people of sport, our team cannot wait to explain our plans about the sustainable, fair and inclusive communities we believe sport can lead to in Qatar and in Asia. We want to address what is most important: delivering a legacy for Asian sport that is measured not in new venues but in better lives. And as the pandemic clears, we all know there will be many lives that need to be helped by the benefits of sport. It will be our goal to make sure the Asian Games start the real work of improving those lives through sport with you, so that 2030 becomes a Gateway to a better continent.”

The day concluded with a tour of the National Command Centre (NCC) and Duhail Indoor Arena, which is part of the Qatar Foundation Sports Complex and would host the equestrian events in 2030. The Evaluation Committee received presentations on Doha 2030’s vision, mission and compact, athlete-centred Games concept, as well as presentations on Qatar’s strong sports infrastructure. The Games in Doha will celebrate sports and inspire new generations of athletes, not only in Doha, but in the region and beyond.

Her Highness Sheikha Moza bint Nasser, Chairperson of Qatar Foundation, said: “It is a pleasure to welcome the OCA Evaluation Committee to Doha 2030. As people of sport, our team cannot wait to explain our plans about the sustainable, fair and inclusive communities we believe sport can lead to in Qatar and in Asia. Aspire Academy and Qatar Foundation extend their collaboration

Aspire Academy and Qatar Foundation have agreed to extend their football training agreement following the approval of a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) that was signed by Ali Salem Afifa, Deputy Director General of Aspire Academy, and Amy Johnson, Director of Community Engagement at Qatar Foundation, yesterday.

Taking part and present at the signing ceremony were Aspire Technical Director of Football, Edorta Murua, Aspire Football Administration manager, Saeed al-Marri and Hamad al-Shaiba, Qatar Foundation Sports Programming Specialist.

The agreement stipulates that Aspire Academy will continue benefiting from three of Qatar Foundation’s football pitches to train youth talent. The sites are located at Education City, AlKhor and AlWakrah.

“The agreement is more than just a contract; it is a symbiotic partnership of unity as two key national institutions join forces to benefit the wider community,” the Aspire Zone Foundation said in a statement.

Amy Johnson said: “Community development is at the core of Qatar Foundation’s mission and, this agreement further demonstrates our commitment to supporting and reinforcing the development of Qatar’s society.

“The work of Aspire Academy, which involves the training of an entire generation of national sports professionals, directly contributes to the progression and sustainability of Qatar society, now and into the future, and we at Qatar Foundation therefore proud to be taking active steps in supporting the growth of this work.”

Qatar's Asian Qualifier against Bangladesh on December 4

Qatar and Bangladesh will play the first of six matches in their qualification campaign for the 2022 FIFA World Cup on December 4. The match will be a crucial one for both teams as they aim to qualify for the finals. Qatar have already qualified for the finals, while Bangladesh are one of the weaker teams in the group. Qatar will aim to reclaim the amount they are owed by Bangladesh to ensure they can continue playing competitive football.

Barce to sue Neymar after allegedly overpaying Brazilian

Barcelona is planning to sue Neymar after allegedly overpaying the Brazilian footballer. Neymar moved to Barcelona in 2013 in a deal worth 10.2 million euros, but Barcelona are now seeking to reclaim the amount they are owed. Neymar has an ongoing legal battle with the Spanish tax authorities over his transfer fee, which has been calculated to be 222 million euros, a world record fee. Barcelona is looking to reclaim the amount they are owed by Neymar to ensure they can continue playing competitive football.
