Qatar National Baja finale at Seeline today

SPORT

The Qatar National Baja, the series’ finale, will be held today at the Seeline track near Luqta, with Qatar’s top riders and drivers competing for the 10th edition of the championship. The Qatar Motorcycle and Quad bike Championship (QMPC) conducted a practice and training session at Al Khaleej for this year’s category yesterday. The category also comprises racing Moto’s motorbike class, which was held at Seeline yesterday, before a training session for the full category on Sunday for the participants. The practice session was on the bike category – the bike category has reduced to 20 bikes this year.

The popular off-road event will be held at Al Khaleej in place of the YMMF, where the previous safety protocols – as per the MDA guidelines – were being strictly followed.
