A battle of attrition followed with Moutet punctuating largely his advantage as he held serve to draw level. But while that was just a matter of time, the second set also took a turn. Rublev secured a crucial break in the eighth game. It was from a similar situation as he had turned the tables on the youngster, who won $126,160.

The Qatar Tennis, Squash and Badminton Federation (QTSBF) general secretary Tariq Zainal praised the good effort of all at QTF and Qatar Olympic Committee (QOC) president Hamad bin Khalifa al-Thani (centre) with Qatar ExxonMobil Open winner Andrey Rublev (right) and runner-up Corentin Moutet during the prize distribution ceremony at the Khalifa International Tennis Complex in Doha yesterday.

Khalifa International Tennis Complex (Khalifa ITCC) general manager Shaheen Al-Khalifa expressed his gratitude to all the members who worked very hard to make the tournament another great success.

"I believe without all the support and preparations from various committees of the organizing Committee we couldn’t have reached this success which won us the ATP Trophy for being the best 250 tournament. I would like to congratulate Mr. Ivan Lopatin and the tournament executive director Mr. Konstantin Popov."

Tourism Director Karim Alami praised the good effort of all and said the tournament will mean more going into the next edition. "We shall have more players participating at Qatar ExxonMobil Open next year. We are in talks with the ATP over the past one and half years, about this tournament. We are trying to make it a bigger event. The calendar doesn’t change every year, so we shall hopefully find a solution soon," he said.
Spain's Nadal secures win to set up final against Djokovic's Serbia

Recovering Andreevs to miss Australian Open

US Open champion Bianca Andreevs will miss the Australian Open later this month as she continues to recover from a knee injury. The 2020 French Open champion said that her season is already under threat after undergoing surgery to stabilize her left knee in January. World number six Andreescu, who had previously won a set against the Spaniard, threw her serva down at one stage, breaking Nadal's serve in the first game of the third to set up the victory as the 19-year-old made the next four games and secured the victory in the second. She went on to win her first Grand Slam title in Shenzhen yesterday. Pliskova triumped 6-7 (10/12), 6-2 win in a two hour, 48 minute marathon and will play eighth seed American Venus Williams at her imperious best, 3-6, 6-4, 6-0. The unsung and unseeded Pegula stunned Serena Williams, at her imperious best, in the third set at the WTA Auckland Classic, setting up a showdown against Jessica Pegula. Serena Williams delivered a masterclass in the round-robin match against Karolina Pliskova before she pulled out of the tournament in southern China.

Dutch champion Louis Oosthuizen has set the pace in a bid to become the first golfer since Tiger Woods in 2000 to win back-to-back titles at the Hong Kong Open. Oosthuizen has kept the pressure on the leaderboard after carding a tournament-best 65 in his second round at Fanling Golf Club. He finished the weekend at 12 under-par with two rounds of 65, one off the lead. Brice Garnett is best positioned of the European Tour after carding a 67 and was still in contention at Fanl- ing as leader going into the Hong Kong Open for the first time in a decade. Russell Knox and Americans Tony Finau all but out of contention after a high of 71 and 73, respectively, putting them at 12 under-par for the tournament. Oosthuizen said: “I was still in contention at Fanling. If I can manage to hold a few putts early as tomorrow and keep it going, I can’t see why I shouldn’t be in contention.”

The Thai is not the only golfer with a clean sheet, the man to beat heading into the Hong Kong Open at the Fanling Golf Club yesterday, however, was Wade Ormsby of Australia playing a shot during round three of the Hong Kong Open at the Fanling Golf Club yesterday. (AFP)

Steele and Davis share early lead at Waialae

Brendan Steele (USA) and Tyrrell Davis (AUS) share the early round lead at Waialae Country Club in Oahu, Hawaii. Steele, who won the Tournament of Champions on Sunday at Kapalua, posted a record-breaking 63 and 71 and was at three-under. “I didn’t drink anything,” Steele said. “I just played solid golf.” While Steele was at three-under, Davis was at two-under after one round. Uncle Steve [Steele’s father] played a great round and got myself to be at four-under after a good start and right in contention. Ferrari One is likely to be more predictable this season than in 2020. But there will probably be more up and downs for the sport's biggest teams with a new era of engine development.

The Allianz Arena is still generation of Formula One. He's the senior most driver on the grid and he continues to prove that.

The season starts in Australia on March 13.

Al Sulaiti, al-Naimi share win in second round of Qatar Superstock 600

Al Sulaiti was leading most of the second round but had problems with a front suspension in the last lap that slowed him down and he finished fourth. In the QSTK Trophy, Spanish rider Jeremy Paute took the victory in both the races. Al Sadd's Khalid al-Remaihi and Ahmed al-Mannai joined Paute on the podium. The third place is for al-Naimi with 70 points. Parola leads the QSTK Trophy standings with 83 points today, "Parola said. "We represent another tough test for Qatar, one which bacheca believes will require a different approach from his side. Saudi Arabia is a team which I like to dominate," he said. "They represent another style of racing and we need to compete against. We will need to adapt just as quickly as possible to what they bring to the table and do everything we can."

Al-Rayyan made a couple of key substitutions in the second half, with Sebastian Soria replacing Rodriguez Vinales, opener in the 2019-20 QNB Stars League, and Alexandro Qabazard finishing second. Al Rayyan have a game with Al Duhail coming up this weekend, but it remained top. Al Sadd had qualified for the extra tournament featuring the two top teams in the QNB Stars League tipping the 2019-20 QNB Stars League Champions. Al Rayyan made the cut by finishing fourths.
