The Commercial Bank Qatar Masters will move to Education City Golf Club, marking the beginning of an exciting new era for the tournament, which takes place from March 6–9, 2020.

The event has moved across the Qatar Airways T20 trophy to Education City Golf Club – a landmark project for Qatar and the world of golf – which offers a revolutionary and holistic approach to growing the game.

Designated by two-time Masters champion (2011, 2015) and Asia-Pacific Golf Confederation president, Eung-tae Song (2011, 2012), the Commercial Bank Qatar Masters is QGA and QF’s flagship event on the global golfing calendar.

South Africa won the toss and posted 222 for six in their 20 overs, but Max Schurman and Tabraiz Shamsi steered the side to victory.

Heinrich Klaasen (66 from 33 balls) was the highest scorer for the Africans, with Jonny Bairstow (64 from 25) and Eoin Morgan (57 not out) also hitting half-centuries.

England lost Jason Roy in the second over of their reply, but the Whitemen produced a blistering 34-run partnership with Bairstow for the second wicket. Roy was bowled by Klaasen (2/33)

Once they fell, Morgan, who was supported by Stokes (34) put on 91 in 49 balls as the visitors put up their hands. "It's a nice note to leave this tour on, we have loved every moment of it," Morgan said at the post-match presentation.

"But the way we played, the way we hit, the wicket we knew it would be perfect for us. As we get closer to the World Cup we are clearer in our minds, we are just different, we are just thinking positively. Very happy.

"It was a belligerent, open attack by both sides and it has been quite a close match between the sides and it has been a hugely exciting game for the crowd.

"Morgan has continued his training programme in a bid to be ready for the first T20I against South Africa. He is looking forward to the match as he is aiming to win the series for his country.

"We were boosted by a powerful 66 from 35 balls by Heinrich Klaasen, before he was cut out by a blunder from England's David Willey. The visitors put up 222 for six in their 20 overs, but Max Schurman and Tabraiz Shamsi steered the side to victory.
