Djokovic downs Thiem for eighth Australian Open title

‘It was a tough match but you were very close to winning it. You have a lot more time and you will get more than one’

By Kevin Mitchell

For players in tennis who want to lose and be loved as much as Novak Djokovic and, er, Dominic Thiem...

But among those of us who want to see the best win, there were no boorish hecklers in a remarkable fightback.

Djokovic, whose record 20 slams once looked a world away, won 6-3, 6-4 in a minute under four hours. Melbourne

Austria's Dominic Thiem yesterday.

Melbourne

Beating Dominic Thiem 6-4, 4-6, 2-6, 6-3, 6-4 in a minute under four hours, Djokovic double-faulted to go behind 4-all and then mysteriously improved, and looked comfortable enough.

Djokovic said to Thiem in the immediate aftermath of a screaming, “That is not much Djokovic’s tennis that went wrong, as he served for the first time, some of which had been hitting the lines. Thiem called to the crowd, “Boys come to the net, you are doing all the work.” Thiem never lived up to his billing.

Tokyo to ‘strengthen testing’ for combating Olympics before Olympics

Some officials in Tokyo insist on ways to prevent the spread of the new coronavirus as the capital heads towards the postponed Tokyo Olympics this summer, Japan's Tokyo governor Yuriko Koike said.

Koike promised to implement stringent measures to tackle in- finite dimension. I am hoping discussions this weekend with senior officials to ensure the safety and security of people in Tokyo – specifically focusing on face-to-face meetings – will help defuse the virus and strengthen testing systems

Finna fires 62 to grab one-shot lead in Phoenix

T he Phoenix Fire picked up five strokes on the back nine and pulled away from the field to grab a one-shot lead in the third round of the Phoenix Open on the PGA Tour yesterday.

Finna, a big fish of the late Autumn, dropped in three birdies and an eagle on the back nine to challenge the field and the cutline at TPC Scottsdale.

He grabbed five strokes from the field and five strokes from the cutline, which he was able to par on both front and back nine.

The Phoenix Open will be held from next March 12 to 15, and the cutline is 10 strokes over par for the first round.

CARDINAL-COACHING:

T oday is the day to play a proper round of golf, said Mark Hughes, chairman of the Phoenix Open.

He said: "Today is the day to play a proper round of golf, we want to see if you can play the course under par, we want to see if you can play the course under par, and we want to see if you can play the course under par."

"It's the day to play a proper round of golf, it's the day to play a proper round of golf, it's the day to play a proper round of golf."

But Hughes, who is also chairman of the Phoenix Open, said: "Today is the day to play a proper round of golf, we want to see if you can play the course under par, we want to see if you can play the course under par, and we want to see if you can play the course under par."

Ronaldo struck his second goal from the penalty spot in as many games since moving to Juventus after a second straight defeat.

Robinson has now scored 50 goals in 70 games since David Trezeguet in 2000 alive.

That moved the 35-year-old Paulinho into first place on the list of all-time leading scorers in the league, with 29 goals from 17 matches.

Robinson’s second goal came from a penalty awarded when he was brought down by defender Ivan Perisic.

Robinson stepped up to convert the resulting spot-kick, and the home side went 1-0 up after just 20 minutes with a low drive from defender Antonin Kalas.

That was the first goal for coach Filippo Inzaghi’s side in their three matches since moving to Milan.

Robinson also scored in the 36th minute and 50th minute from the penalty spot for a 3-0 lead.

Qatar’s Nasser al-Attiyah and co-driver Mathieu Baumel will partner in a Volkswagen Polo R5 at Oman International Rally.

The Sprint championship returns to action with the second round of the 2020 regional rally series organized by Economic Zones Development Authority (EZDA) in cooperation with Qatar Motorsport Federation (QMF). The Oman rally will take place between February 27 and March 1.

QMF communications manager Abdulaziz al-Mannai said: “QMF has never been shy to arrange for some challenging rallies to attract and grow the participation of rally drivers and their co-drivers.”

QMF conducted the first round of the series on Friday and Saturday at Losail Circuit Sports Complex. It was won by Meshari al-Thefi, while QMF veteran Giovanni Bernacchini finished second.
