Ronald Koeman in talks to coach Barca, who sack Abidal as part of restructuring

Reuters

Aston Villa and former Barcelona assistant manager Ronald Koeman is in talks to take over as manager of Barcelona, sources told Reuters on Thursday.

Koeman, who played for and later became the club’s assistant manager during his playing days, is in talks to replace Quique Setién at the club, one of the sources said.

Barcelona sacked Setién on Tuesday after their 8-2 drubbing by Bayern Munich in the Champions League quarter-finals.

The Catalans, who continued a trend of sacking coaches early in the season in recent years, will now look to Koeman to lead them in their bid to reclaim the La Liga title from Real Madrid.

Koeman is expected to be appointed as early as this week.

Flick trusts Bayern to ‘start from scratch’

Bayern are favourites to lift the trophy after hammering Barcelona 8-2 in quarters

Bayer Munich coach Hansi Flick says his team will “start from scratch” when they face French giant-killers Lyon in today’s Champions League semi-final.

Flick was speaking as Bayern, who are the only remaining German team in the tournament, face Lyon in the competition’s last four.

Bayern have punched above their weight by reaching the semi-finals for a second successive season on the back of their last 20 matches in all competitions. The Bavarians are favourite now and we have to be careful, “ said Gnabry.

Meanwhile, Bayern defender Benjamin Pavard has fully recovered from an ankle injury and could be part of the squad against Lyon. Pavard, who had an out- fitting in the club’s history. “It is not fair, I survived from day one that something was wrong,” remember Benitez.

That was our big goal for the season. We played better in the Champions League from the start than we might have done in the Bundesliga. We were extremely greedy in the first part of the season, which was met with surprise as the club had said a day earlier that a restructuring of the squad would be considered by the board.

In the meantime, Bayern Munich’s German forward Thomas Mueller is interviewed on the fields at the Jose Alvalade stadium in Lisbon yesterday, in the eve of the Champions League semi-final match against Lyon, 00/00/00.
