As Qatar rally star Nasser Saleh al-Attiyah continues his domination at the Rally of Morocco, al-Attiyah and his French co-driver, Matthieu Baumel, have extended their lead in the FIA World Cup for Cross-Country Rallying. The duo topped the leaderboard by 28 seconds ahead of Robby Gordon (1:31:57) and just 25 seconds ahead of Al-Rajhi (1:31:82).

The rally, which took place in the Moroccan desert, featured three stages, each of which tested the drivers' navigational skills and endurance. The third stage of the rally was the most challenging, with 330km of sand dunes and要求 drivers to pay close attention to the sand traps and hazardous areas.

“Navigating the desert is not easy,” said al-Attiyah. “We have to be very careful and keep our focus on the GPS route. We are still in the lead, and we will continue to fight for the win.”

Meanwhile, the FIA World Cup for Cross-Country Rallying standings show that al-Attiyah is leading the championship with 113 points, followed by Al-Rajhi with 98 points and Gordon with 94 points.

The next event in the FIA World Cup for Cross-Country Rallying is the Rally of Portugal, which will take place from 9-12 June. The rally is expected to be a tough test for the competitors, with challenging stages and unpredictable weather conditions.

Unstoppable al-Attiyah extends lead

Local Messi opened the scoring in the opening minutes of the match, finding the net with a spectacular strike from a free kick. However, the goal was quickly overturned as the Argentine forward was ruled offside.

The first half of the match was a see-saw affair, with both teams looking to dominate proceedings. Messi and his teammates put in a solid performance, but the goal was by no means easy to come by.

Coach Tite’s side continued to dominate in the second half, with multiple chances at goal. Despite the threat, Brazil was unable to find a second goal, and the match ended in a 1-0 victory for Argentina.

Messi’s performance in the match was uninspiring, with a lot of the ball at his feet but not enough to create meaningful chances for the team. The victory was a much-needed one for Argentina, who have struggled for consistency in recent months.

Argentina will now look to build on this win as they prepare for the next match in the tournament. The team will be hoping to continue their positive form and secure a strong position in the group.

We are not hiding over quarantine fears, says Woakes

“Tough Covid-19 quarantine guidelines are in place, says former England captain Woakes.

BCCI has already made it clear that the teams will have to follow a strict bio-bubble protocol with no movement of players to their families or close contacts. Players will have to undergo严格的 Covid-19 testing and will have to isolate themselves in their rooms during the quarantine period.

Woakes also expressed his concern over the potential for the tournament to be postponed due to any further rise in Covid-19 cases in Australia. He said that the players and their families will have to be isolated for a period of time and that there is a risk of the tournament being postponed if any positive cases are detected.

Stokes provides positive finger injury update

England all-rounder Ben Stokes yesterday said he was making progress in his recovery from a finger injury after giving a picture on social media showing him holding a bat. The 30-year-old has been out of action since injuring his hand during the IPL in April. Stokes has previously stated that he is targeting a return to the India tour later this year.

The all-rounder has been ruled out of the England squad for the upcoming Ashes series against Australia due to a finger injury. He is currently undergoing rehabilitation and is expected to return to action soon.

Mbappe fires France to Nations League glory

A

The final Madrid striker tried to dribble around Spain goalkeeper Unai Sim- one but went far wide and ended goal-scoring a fine pace across goal which was easily cut out by the Castilla goalkeeper. Two minutes later a lightning passing move led to Edneral, playing against the country of his birth for the first time, ghosting into the box and cutting out a low cross. There was little生素o much web of goalkeepers after being set up by Benz- ima. The Paris Saint-Germain forward created the goal with a pinpoint pass through receptors who went on to find Mbappe. The latter was fouled on the outside of the box by Spain, who swept a precise free-kick to the delight of the Spanish fans gathered behind goal.

However, no sooner had the visitors regained the lead than the French backline was broken down again by Mbappe after being set up by Benzema. The Paris Saint-Germain forward did well with a well-timed run to find Mbappe, who swept a fine pass through the break, but the Real Madrid striker was able to direct the ball with a powerful strike.

Aspire Academy kicks-off pre-academy athletics trials for clubs

By Sports Reporter

Aspire Academy kicked off its first ever week-long pre-academy athletics trials for clubs for young athletes. The trials, which are open to about 200 athletes aged 7-15 years old, were organized by the academy coaches.

Only Grade six students born in 2010 are entitled to join the seventh-month programme which is conducted by leading sports academies. The programme is a part of Aspire Academy’s recruitment drive for athletes, and only the selected ones from the trials are invited to attend the training sessions at the academy Aspire Academy.

Moringa wins ITF World Tennis Tour title in Doha

Germany’s Oscar Moringa won the International Tennis Federation (ITF) World Tennis Tour title at the Khalifa International Tennis and Squash Complex.

The tournament was hosted by the Qatar Tennis, Squash and Athletics Federation (QTSBF) and sponsored by the ITF. The QTSBF was founded in 1971 to develop tennis in Qatar and has been a member of the International Tennis Federation (ITF) since 1972.

The event was won by the Italian's impressive serve and volley game, which dominated the first set. In the second set, Moringa continued to dominate and won the title.

After winning the title, Moringa expressed his joy at his achievement and thanked his team for their support.

“I am really happy to win this title. I have been working hard for a long time and this victory is a big achievement for me. I want to thank my team for their support and encouragement.”

The victory was a big boost for the QTSBF and the ITF, who are both looking to promote tennis in the region.

“We are very happy to see Moringa win this title. This is a big achievement for both of them. We are looking to promote tennis in the region and this victory is a big boost.”

The ITF is an international governing body for tennis, which organizes the Grand Slam tournaments and the Olympic Games. The ITF also organizes the Davis Cup and the Fed Cup, which are international team competitions.

The QTSBF is a national governing body for tennis in Qatar, which organizes local tournaments and events. The QTSBF is also a member of the International Tennis Federation (ITF).

QTSBF secretary general Tarig Zaatari right and tournament director Saud Al-Mohannadi, both congratulated the winner and thanked the organizers for their support.

“We are really happy to see Moringa win this title. This is a big achievement for them, and we thank the organizers for their support and encouragement.”

QTSBF has been organizing tennis events in Qatar for many years and has been working to promote tennis in the region. The QTSBF is also looking to develop tennis in the region and is working with the ITF to promote tennis in the region.
