Naples’ ninth start to the Serie A season saw it score in Italy’s San Paolo with a pulsating goalless draw with AC Milan following their hard-fought victory over Ascoli on Sunday. The draw meant Roma kept the second-place spot, but Napoli and Milan both picked up points to keep the race for the league title tight.

The game opened with a 90+2 minute strike from Naples’ Marek Hamsik, but it was a goal too late as the defending champions brushed off the challenge from AC Milan. Both teams had attempted to break the deadlock but could not find a way past the对方’s resolute defense.

eech's injury to a stunning 5-0 win at Anfield Saturday morning, the result was not unexpected as Liverpool had been in fine form and had scored 11 goals in their last three matches. The victory was Liverpool's biggest against United since 1925 and moved them to second place in the Premier League.

The match seemed to start with Liverpool dominating the possession and creating several chances. Salah, who had scored a hat-trick in his last two matches, was looking sharp and ready to make an impact. The ball was eventually played to Salah in the box, and he made no mistake, planting the ball into the back of the net.

The second goal came from a free kick awarded to Liverpool after a foul on Jordan Henderson. Salah stepped up and curled the ball into the top corner, making it 2-0. The third goal was scored by Mo Salah after a beautiful move involving Naby Keita and Roberto Firmino. Salah slotted the ball home to make it 3-0.

With United's defense in disarray, Liverpool continued to pour on the goals. The fourth goal came after a mix-up in the United defense, allowing Salah to turn and shot past the helpless goalkeeper. The final goal was a penalty, awarded after a foul on Sadio Mane. Salah stepped up and converted the spot kick to make it 5-0.

The victory was a huge boost for Liverpool's morale and their quest for a top-four finish. With this win, they moved ahead of Chelsea and into second place, just one point behind Manchester United. The team will now focus on their upcoming games, knowing that they have a good chance of finishing in the top four and qualifying for the Champions League.
