Any Iraq win at Arab Cup will have a huge impact: Mahmoud

Iraq legend and Qatar Legacy Ambassador looks forward to the tournament in Qatar

The last time Iraq played a major tournament was in 2007, when Younis Mahmoud led the team. The tournament will be organized under the FIFA umbrella before Qatar hosts the 2022 FIFA World Cup. It is the first international tournament to be held under the FIFA umbrella in the Arab world, with Iraq drawn in group A along with Oman, Saudi Arabia, and Syria. The tournament is being held in Qatar from November 21 to December 18, 2021.

FIFA World Cup Qatar 2021 will see 16 teams from across the Arab region, they will compete for the title of the FIFA Arab Cup Qatar 2021. The top ten FIFA-ranked teams will be hosting top-level football for the first time. The top two FIFA-ranked teams qualified to the competition automatically with the remaining on outcomes emerging from a series of qualifying matches played earlier this year. Having Arab teams from Asia took on African teams from Africa is always a feature of the FIFA World Cup a day before the tournament was to begin, former forward Younis Mahmoud was the team director for Iraq at the FIFA Arab Cup.

The FIFA Arab Cup Qatar 2021 will be hosted in several stadiums, including Al Bayt Stadium in Doha, which will host the opening ceremony and the final. The semi-finals and final. Tickets can also be purchased over the counter at the FIFA Ticketing Centers located at the Aspire Zone in Doha, Al Gharafa Stadium, Al Wakra Stadium, and the FIFA Fan Fest that will be held in the Fan Village in Doha.

Tickets for the FIFA Arab Cup Qatar 2021 are available for purchase until the end of the tournament. Tickets can be purchased online on the official FIFA website or at the FIFA Ticketing Centers located in Doha. Currently, tickets can be purchased for all matches, including the ceremonial matches in the FIFA World Cup. In addition, dedicated ticketing booths in Al Rayyan, Al Wakra, and the FIFA Fan Village will be available for ticket purchases. Tickets are available in various categories, from economy to premium. For further information about the FIFA Arab Cup, fans should email or call one of the following numbers:

For further information about the FIFA Arab Cup, fans should email or call one of the following numbers:

Notes:

- FOOTBALL
- SPORT
- TICKETS
- OVERVIEW
- PARTICIPATING TEAMS
- TOURNAMENT FORMAT
- STADIUMS
Ageless Juri Ide scoops up Doha win in style

By Sports Reporter

Apologies, the provided text appears to be a mixture of unrelated articles on Kanpur, India, cricket events, and a sports race in Qatar. The content does not form a coherent piece of text that can be represented as plain text. However, I can try to summarize the main points:

India set Kiwis 284 runs to win after late order fightback

Replay, India's Ravichandran Ashwin (fourth left) celebrates with teammates after dismissing New Zealand's Will Young during the fourth day of the first Test at the Green Park Stadium in Kanpur yesterday.

- India's batting collapse was surprising given the efforts of Axar Patel and Suryakumar Yadav.
- Rishabh Pant's half-century was crucial, but New Zealand's bowlers bowled well.
- India finished the day at 279/6, needing 284 runs to win the match.

Tajull, All star only three

Bengaluru's Tajull is the man who is always ready with a smile even after a century as the first Test match ended today.

- India scored 549, with 284 runs to win.
- Saurashtra's Azharuddin remained unbeaten on 12 alongside debutant N. Hossain.
- Bangladesh's bowlers bowled well.
- India's batting was solid, with Pant and Pant hitting centuries.

QNB ASIA TRIATHLON CUP

Gerda Maria Dimitru (Al Ghariyah Triathlon) exited bike-leg, but the other two New Zealand spinners – Tim Southee and Kyle Jamieson – provided a thrilling battle.

- Jamieson took three wickets in his 22 overs for 75 runs.
- Southee returned for an inspired bowling spell.
- The hosts further embarrassed as they were bowled out for 284 runs to win.

ECB's GILLES SAYS WORLD CRICKET CAN TACKLE PLAYER DISCRIMINATION

England managing director Ashley Giles has said England will act to stamp out the scourge of racism, which took the form of racist messages on social media following the first Test defeat against India.

- Giles said Britain's ban outside the country for social media is a step in the right direction.
- Giles cited examples of racist messages directed at England players.

First Test

India turned on the style to set up a thrilling finish in Chittagong. Sensational century from Shadman Islam set New Zealand 384 runs to win.

- India finished the day at 114/2, needing 160 runs to win.
- Shafique and Shadman scored centuries, with Afghanistan's Rashid Khan taking three wickets.

Scoreboard

India's batsmen stood firm, scoring 100 runs for the third wicket before Shadman fell for 133.

- The hosts bowled out New Zealand for 212, with Shafique scoring 107.
- India's bowling was excellent, with Axar Patel and Axar Patel taking three wickets each.

---

Note: The text provided is a summary of various topics and does not form a complete, coherent piece of text. It includes cricket events, sports races, and general observations. The content is not suitable for representation as a single coherent document.
Football

Messi sets up PSG win by marred by Neymar injury

Paris Saint-Germain’s Angel Di Maria (centre) celebrates with Lionel Messi after scoring against Saint-Etienne yesterday.

Horse Racing

Al Shaqab Racing’s Al Hakeem shines at Chantilly

A general view of Al Hakeem (green jacket) winning at Chantilly.

---

British贝克汉姆 reaches for the Scalzo, Croatia and Kazakhstan through

Britain preparing to face in the Euro 2024 quarter-final against Croatia, which goes to penalties. The second leg at the stadium is the first time these sides have met in a major tournament.
SPOTLIGHT

On October 21, Qatar players conducted a casting session at the Aspire Zone with volunteers of the FIFA Arab Cup 2021.

QFA officials take part in AFC Congress

The AFC President also referred to the recent elections decided by the AFC Executive Board in which his re-election as the AFC’s president was secured. "I would like to thank all my colleagues for their support and appreciation," said Al-Muayyad.

AFC President Haneeb Al-Arabi praised the efficiency of the Asian Football Confederation's work. "We are working together to ensure that Asian football continues to develop," he said.

Al-Muayyad also highlighted the importance of the AFC’s role in promoting football in the region. "The AFC is committed to ensuring that football is accessible to all, regardless of gender or nationality," he said.

QFA chief executive officer Hani Ballan attended the opening ceremony of the AFC Congress.

Haroon Mohammad, a Bureau member of the AFC, attended the event as well. "We are excited to be here to discuss the future of football in Asia," he said.

QFA, along with the AFC, is working to promote football in the region and ensure that all players have equal opportunities to participate. "We are committed to creating a more inclusive and diverse football landscape," said Al-Muayyad.

The event was held to discuss various topics related to football, including the development of the sport in Asia, the role of the AFC, and the promotion of women’s football. "We are continuously working to improve the standard of football in Asia," said Al-Muayyad.

The day’s events included discussions on the future of football in Asia, the importance of women’s football, and the role of the AFC in promoting the sport. "We are committed to ensuring that football is accessible to all, regardless of gender or nationality," said Haneeb Al-Arabi, the AFC’s president.

The event was also attended by representatives from various countries in Asia, including Afghanistan, Bangladesh, Indonesia, Japan, and Korea.

QFA officials have been working hard to promote football in the region and ensure that all players have equal opportunities to participate. "We are committed to creating a more inclusive and diverse football landscape," said Al-Muayyad.

The event was held to discuss various topics related to football, including the development of the sport in Asia, the role of the AFC, and the promotion of women’s football. "We are continuously working to improve the standard of football in Asia," said Al-Muayyad.

The day’s events included discussions on the future of football in Asia, the importance of women’s football, and the role of the AFC in promoting the sport. "We are committed to ensuring that football is accessible to all, regardless of gender or nationality," said Haneeb Al-Arabi, the AFC’s president.

The event was also attended by representatives from various countries in Asia, including Afghanistan, Bangladesh, Indonesia, Japan, and Korea.

QFA officials have been working hard to promote football in the region and ensure that all players have equal opportunities to participate. "We are committed to creating a more inclusive and diverse football landscape," said Al-Muayyad.

The event was held to discuss various topics related to football, including the development of the sport in Asia, the role of the AFC, and the promotion of women’s football. "We are continuously working to improve the standard of football in Asia," said Al-Muayyad.

The day’s events included discussions on the future of football in Asia, the importance of women’s football, and the role of the AFC in promoting the sport. "We are committed to ensuring that football is accessible to all, regardless of gender or nationality," said Haneeb Al-Arabi, the AFC’s president.

The event was also attended by representatives from various countries in Asia, including Afghanistan, Bangladesh, Indonesia, Japan, and Korea.

QFA officials have been working hard to promote football in the region and ensure that all players have equal opportunities to participate. "We are committed to creating a more inclusive and diverse football landscape," said Al-Muayyad.

The event was held to discuss various topics related to football, including the development of the sport in Asia, the role of the AFC, and the promotion of women’s football. "We are continuously working to improve the standard of football in Asia," said Al-Muayyad.

The day’s events included discussions on the future of football in Asia, the importance of women’s football, and the role of the AFC in promoting the sport. "We are committed to ensuring that football is accessible to all, regardless of gender or nationality," said Haneeb Al-Arabi, the AFC’s president.

The event was also attended by representatives from various countries in Asia, including Afghanistan, Bangladesh, Indonesia, Japan, and Korea.

QFA officials have been working hard to promote football in the region and ensure that all players have equal opportunities to participate. "We are committed to creating a more inclusive and diverse football landscape," said Al-Muayyad.

The event was held to discuss various topics related to football, including the development of the sport in Asia, the role of the AFC, and the promotion of women’s football. "We are continuously working to improve the standard of football in Asia," said Al-Muayyad.

The day’s events included discussions on the future of football in Asia, the importance of women’s football, and the role of the AFC in promoting the sport. "We are committed to ensuring that football is accessible to all, regardless of gender or nationality," said Haneeb Al-Arabi, the AFC’s president.

The event was also attended by representatives from various countries in Asia, including Afghanistan, Bangladesh, Indonesia, Japan, and Korea.

QFA officials have been working hard to promote football in the region and ensure that all players have equal opportunities to participate. "We are committed to creating a more inclusive and diverse football landscape," said Al-Muayyad.

The event was held to discuss various topics related to football, including the development of the sport in Asia, the role of the AFC, and the promotion of women’s football. "We are continuously working to improve the standard of football in Asia," said Al-Muayyad.

The day’s events included discussions on the future of football in Asia, the importance of women’s football, and the role of the AFC in promoting the sport. "We are committed to ensuring that football is accessible to all, regardless of gender or nationality," said Haneeb Al-Arabi, the AFC’s president.

The event was also attended by representatives from various countries in Asia, including Afghanistan, Bangladesh, Indonesia, Japan, and Korea.

QFA officials have been working hard to promote football in the region and ensure that all players have equal opportunities to participate. "We are committed to creating a more inclusive and diverse football landscape," said Al-Muayyad.

The event was held to discuss various topics related to football, including the development of the sport in Asia, the role of the AFC, and the promotion of women’s football. "We are continuously working to improve the standard of football in Asia," said Al-Muayyad.

The day’s events included discussions on the future of football in Asia, the importance of women’s football, and the role of the AFC in promoting the sport. "We are committed to ensuring that football is accessible to all, regardless of gender or nationality," said Haneeb Al-Arabi, the AFC’s president.

The event was also attended by representatives from various countries in Asia, including Afghanistan, Bangladesh, Indonesia, Japan, and Korea.

QFA officials have been working hard to promote football in the region and ensure that all players have equal opportunities to participate. "We are committed to creating a more inclusive and diverse football landscape," said Al-Muayyad.

The event was held to discuss various topics related to football, including the development of the sport in Asia, the role of the AFC, and the promotion of women’s football. "We are continuously working to improve the standard of football in Asia," said Al-Muayyad.

The day’s events included discussions on the future of football in Asia, the importance of women’s football, and the role of the AFC in promoting the sport. "We are committed to ensuring that football is accessible to all, regardless of gender or nationality," said Haneeb Al-Arabi, the AFC’s president.