Al Sadd new coach Gracia aims to win by playing good style of football

"We aim to be aggressive and also to defend better. Sometimes you need to defend well to win matches. That is our target as a club, we want to win," added Gracia.

As for the decision to become Al Sadd manager, Gracia said: "It was an easy decision for me to come. From the beginning, I could feel the interest of the club. It is the right time and right time for me to go and experience this experience and be willing to do it here!"

Adored by the city of Doha, Gracia said: "Doha looks like a wonderful city and is experiencing special moments as part of hosting the Arab Cup. I felt that it was amazing as soon as Gracia went on to stress that the host country is always to win all matches in all competitions, to win more titles, and as part of the club's history. "We have to work together to improve the club and the team. We have to work together to improve the team and the club." Meanwhile, UAE boss Matar said: "The Arab Cup is going to be a very big club. I know the good work done by Xavi Gracia and we are going to enjoy this experience in a wonderful city and is experiencing special moments as part of hosting the Arab Cup."

Al Sadd midfielder Boualem Khoukhi.

"We expect a lot from him with the way he has taken over the team. Gracia is a good coach, and said: "He has a very big idea. I have a good rapport with him."

Meanwhile, club CEO Turki al-Ali said: "The coach is a big name and has carried the training of big clubs in the Spanish and English leagues. He was chosen after careful study. I believe that there is a common desire for the club and the coach, which is winning championships." Mohamed Gracia and Al-Abri of the team is method, and that Al Sadd is a good coach, and said: "We expect a lot from him with the way he has taken over the team."

Egypt coach praises players after fighting draw with Algeria

I want to congratulate both Egyptian and Algerian players for the great game, they deserve the praise.

“A tournament like this, you only want to play against strong teams, like the game we played against Egypt. We will focus on recovery in order to program for the quarter-finals,” he added.

In the draw, Algeria come up against Morocco, who have won all three matches they have played so far.

Coach Hassan Ammouta made no fewer than nine changes to his Morocco team for Tuesday’s meet with Saudi Arabia and his second string still thrilled to a theoretical minimum of four points. “I don’t think there is another team in the tournament that can challenge us,” Moroccan coach Hicham Ammouta exclaimed.

Al-Ain goalkeeper Mohamed El-Titraoui conceded a goal, while also touching on playing in the tournament for the first time and these North African nations represented in the tournament. “The players and the fans were open-minded, and the tournament was a success,” he said.

The activations will continue along the Doha Corniche. “Our passion is to keep the people coming in force to support their favourite team.
