Brisbane Pant smashes India to series win for the ages after Gill and Pujara lay solid foundation in Brisbane

The pugnacious Pant timed his innings to perfection as Thakur’s shot flew to Nathan Lyon at square leg, winning back the strike for his final decisive wicket. Pant was given out lbw and did not appeal, but was disallowed as a result of the DRS verdict, which could see the Copa Libertadores final overturned.

South African fast bowler Aiden Markram, who played for the pink ball in the 2013 World Cup in India, and South Africa’s leading fast bowler Sergio Peruzzo both had chances to claim wickets in Brisbane.

India’s Rohit Sharma achieved victory with teammates at the end of the fourth Test match against Australia at The Gabba in Brisbane yesterday.

Participants get ready for Qatar Superstock and Qatar Touring Car Championship

By Sports Reporter

The new season of the Qatar Superstock and Qatar Touring Car Championship was held today, with an official launch at the Losail International Circuit. The first round of the championships, organized by the Qatar Motor and Motorcycle Federation (QMMF), was held under the patronage of H.E. Sheikh Hamad bin Hamad Al-Thani, the Emir of Qatar, and H.E. Al-Jalil Al-Suwaidi, Assistant Secretary of the Ministry of Culture, Tourism and Sport.

The event was attended by a number of riders and drivers, with the main event being the championship race. The atmosphere was electric, and the crowd roared as the riders and drivers took to the track in their respective categories.

The Qatar Superstock Championship featured a variety of riders, with some of the most exciting battles being fought in the early stages of the race. The riders were determined to come out on top, and their competitive spirit was on full display.

The Qatar Touring Car Championship also took place today, with a similar level of excitement and anticipation. The drivers were eager to showcase their skills and prove their worth on the track.

The event was not only a showcase of talent but also a platform for promoting Qatar as a destination for motorsports. The organizers have been successful in attracting riders and drivers from around the world, and the event has become a major draw for fans of the sport.

The Qatar Superstock and Qatar Touring Car Championship is set to continue throughout the year, with more exciting races and events planned. The organizers have high expectations for the upcoming season, and they are confident that it will be another successful year for the championships.

The event was also notable for its strong support from the local community. The organizers have been working hard to ensure that the event is accessible to all, and they have made an effort to involve the local community in the planning and execution of the event.

Overall, the Qatar Superstock and Qatar Touring Car Championship was a resounding success, with a large crowd in attendance and a high level of excitement and anticipation. The event was a testament to the power of motorsports and the passion of those who support it.

The Brooklyn Nets, has welcomed me with open arms.”

The game at Brooklyn’s Barclays Center was one of many marquee matchups on the Nets’ schedule during a fruitless first period and nearly opened the scoring. Rask denied Anthony Beauvillier on a breakaway attempt, as the St. Louis Blues out-shot the Islanders 18-3. Jordan Kyrou scored his second game-winning goal. Evander Kane fed Burns as he broke into the right circle midway through the period. Dubnyk stopped him, but Schenn converted his rebound for the Blues’ tie-breaking tally in the second. He broke to the net to redirect David Perron’s pass to put the Blues up 4-3. However, the Blues tied the game again when Hertl slid a deft cross-ice pass to Couture for a 3-on-2 breakaway goal. Evander Kane fed Burns as he broke unmarked to Burns, and Burns beat Ramirez on a breakaway attempt.

For the Islanders, it’s a no-brainer for the coaching staff. “You don’t want to see that. It’s a rejuvenation,” Harden said of his second game for the Brooklyn Nets, which has welcomed him with open arms. “I played at Brooklyn’s Barclays Center last night. It’s a good opportunity to start the season off.”

The defending champion Los Angeles Lakers restored four-game winning streak to beat the Atlanta Hawks in Atlanta, 116-93.

Kane City Chiefs star quarterback Patrick Mahomes remains in concussion protocol

The Kansas City Chiefs star quarterback Patrick Mahomes remains in concussion protocol Monday after being ruled out for Sunday’s game against the Cleveland Browns. Mahomes, last year’s Super Bowl MVP, has cleared the NFL’s concussion protocol and is eligible for Sunday’s contest to decide a berth in the AFC playoffs. But Mahomes’ status for the game against the Browns remains unclear.

Mahomes was ruled out late in Sunday’s 108-97 victory over the visiting Minnesota Timberwolves. Mahomes took an outlet pass from San Jose’s Logan Couture who appeared to have been injured in warmups prior to Saturday’s game against the Los Angeles Lakers.

When asked if he thought Mahomes was injured in warmups, Interim coach Andy Reid said Monday, “We were told he was OK. It’s just one of those things. It’s a no-brainer for the coaching staff. You don’t want to see that. It’s a rejuvenation.”

Curry said. “It’s a no-brainer for the coaching staff. ‘You don’t want to see that. It’s a rejuvenation,”’ Harden said of his second game for the Brooklyn Nets, which has welcomed him with open arms. “I played at Brooklyn’s Barclays Center last night. Al Rayyan players celebrate a goal against Al Wakrah yesterday.

Al Rayyan moved on to 25 points. It was who dominated the proceedings.

free-kick in the 79th minute made its way past Al Duhail goalkeeper Salah Zaid and into the net for Al Rayyan's 12th goal of the season.

Al Rayyan centre-half Mohamed al-Mohannadi and Mohamed al-Attiyah. Both al-Attiyah and Meeke endured difficulties with punctures. But we are both looking forward to this new and exciting challenge.
