Root calls for improvement in second Test

PREVIEW

Root’s return could be key to success.

We can’t get ahead of ourselves and think we’re something we’re not.

ENG v PAK, 2nd Test, Sharjah, Dec 2, 2021

Root captained England in his final Test as captain last week and his return for the second Test in Sharjah is eagerly awaited. He has a key role to play with the bat and will need to show consistent form if England are to win the series.

AUS v IND, 4th Test, Gabba, Dec 7, 2021

Pujara has been a consistent performer for India in recent times and is likely to open the batting for the hosts. He will need to be patient and build a big partnership with Kohli to set up England for a competitive start.

SOUTH AFRICA v BRAZIL, 2022 FIFA World Cup Qualifiers, Dec 9, 2021

South Africa are leading the group table and will be looking to secure their place in the next round with a win over Brazil. Township Mapponeng and his teammates will need to perform well on the road.

Barty joins elite field for Adelaide exhibition

Wimbledon.- Ash Barty, world number one, has joined the Adelaide International in January, Reuters reported on Friday, according to The Guardian.

The 24-year-old Barty, who won the Australian Open in February, said she is looking forward to playing her first match for the 2021 season.

"I am looking forward to going back out there and having a really good hit, so that’s what’s going to be on my mind," she said.

The Australian Open, the year’s first Grand Slam, has been delayed to February due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

"I am looking forward to playing my first match for the 2021 season," added Barty.

"... they’re the top players in the world and any rule is if you’re at the top of the game..."

Barty’s return to competition comes after she missed the French Open due to a positive COVID-19 test.

"TheVirtual tennis tour ran from March to June and was a response to the suspension of professional tennis due to the pandemic."

The Australian Open said in a statement that Barty will be "a valued member of the tournament’s elite field, which includes the two-time Australian Open champion, Novak Djokovic, and the world number one, Ashleigh Barty."
The good news for the fans of the Brooklyn Nets is that Patrick Mahomes is not available.

However, Mahomes remained inescapable throughout the game. The Kansas City Chiefs quarterback and Mahomes both had a three-point game in the second quarter of the game. Mahomes passed for 310 yards and three touchdowns, including a 9-yard touchdown pass to Tyreek Hill. His performance was enough to keep the Chiefs in the game and give them a chance to win.

The Chiefs set up their third field goal of the game, a 40-yarder by Ryan Succop, to take a 12-3 lead into halftime.

The Chiefs scored their first touchdown of the game on a 1-yard run by Clyde Edwards-Helaire. The drive was set up by a 30-yard punt return by Mecole Hardman.

On the opening drive of the second half, the Chiefs drove 73 yards in 8 plays, with Mahomes completing all 8 passes for 73 yards. On third down, Mahomes passed to Sammy Watkins for 12 yards to the Bills 14-yard line. Three plays later, Mahomes passed to Tyreek Hill for a 14-yard touchdown.

The Chiefs then added to their lead with a 2-yard touchdown run by Clyde Edwards-Helaire. The drive was set up by a 49-yard punt return by Mecole Hardman.

The Bills responded with a 48-yard field goal by Stephen Hauschka, but the Chiefs soon added another touchdown on a 6-yard run by Clyde Edwards-Helaire. The drive was set up by a 45-yard punt return by Mecole Hardman.

The Bills again answered with a 53-yard field goal by Stephen Hauschka, but the Chiefs soon added another touchdown on a 1-yard run by Clyde Edwards-Helaire. The drive was set up by a 24-yard punt return by Mecole Hardman.

With 12:25 remaining in the fourth quarter, the Chiefs added another touchdown on a 3-yard run by Clyde Edwards-Helaire. The drive was set up by a 47-yard punt return by Mecole Hardman.

The Bills then scored on a 10-yard pass from Josh Allen to Stefon Diggs, but the Chiefs soon added another touchdown on a 2-yard run by Clyde Edwards-Helaire. The drive was set up by a 74-yard punt return by Mecole Hardman.

Arsenal's Arteta focuses on new signings as he faces off against Championship outfit Acoyano in FA Cup clash

Manchester City faced a handful of long-term absences on Wednesday but they still produced a solid performance, especially in the second half. The game was quite entertaining and ended with a 2-0 win for City. Here are some notes from the match:

- Manchester City's defense was strong, with John Stones and Kyle Walker-Peters both having impressive games.
- Raheem Sterling had a solid performance, creating several chances and finding the back of the net with his excellent header.
- Bernardo Silva continued his good form, providing assists and being a creative force for City.
- The second half was particularly strong for City, with Sergio Aguero scoring the second goal after a well-worked move.

Despite losing a few key players, Manchester City continued their winning streak and showed that they are still the team to beat in the Premier League. The next match for City will be against West Ham United, where they will aim to extend their unbeaten run.
Bayern Munich maintain lead with victory over Augsburg

Robert Lewandowski scored his 22nd Bundesliga goal of the campaign to put Bayern back within two points of Leipzig in the table.

Lewandowski’s 13-minute penalty was enough to seal all three points despite Augsburg hitting the woodwork twice and denying Bayern a bigger advantage.

The Pole, 32, silenced the boos at the Allianz Arena with a clinical finish after the ball was chosen for him by a teammate.

Bayern’s Robert Lewandowski converted with the ball still in the area despite the shouts of protest from the Augsburg fans.

Lewandowski had a penalty saved on 14 minutes as Bayern had a 2-0 lead within four minutes.

The Polish striker, 32, registered his 22nd league goal this season, which is 10 goals more than the second highest scorer in the Bundesliga — Schalke’s Max Meyer.

Flick said: “It was a very important game for us. We knew that Augsburg would put up a good fight and they did. We were not at our best today but we still managed to win.”

Lewandowski, 32, has now scored more goals than any other player in the Bundesliga this season, having scored 17 goals in 14 matches.

The Polish international's goal came in the 13th minute when he converted a penalty after being fouled by Augsburg's Uros Brezinac.

Bayern dominated the game from the start and Lewandowski put the ball in the back of the net to give the home team the lead.

Lewandowski then added another goal in the 20th minute to double Bayern's advantage and seal the victory for the Bundesliga leaders.
