Milan, Inter continue duel for top spot: Roma set for Spezia rematch

Parma own goal sends Lazio through to Italian Cup quarter-finals

Lazio defeated Inter in the Italian Cup quarter-finals on Thursday night, in a match which was played in Rome. Louis milot di Stefano scored his first goal from a curling Andrea Petagna free kick in the 68th minute. The match was a crucial one for both sides, with Lazio looking to maintain their momentum in Serie A. But Parma fought back with a goal from the cheap, sending Lazio to the quarter-finals. As the game looked like it was heading to extra time, Denilson Mengi headed towards goal with only 90 seconds left, with the ball going past the goalkeeper and into the net. Lazio will face another team in the quarter-finals.

C Milan and Inter Milan are two of the most successful clubs in Italian football history, with a combined 23 Serie A titles. Both clubs are in pole position to win the Serie A title this season. Legendary Slugger Hank Aaron dies at age 86

Hank Aaron was a beloved figure in baseball and a beloved figure in the world of sports. He was a towering presence on the field, a humble and gracious man off the field, and a role model for generations of athletes and fans alike. His passing has left a void that will be felt by millions of people around the world.

Aaron was a 25-time All-Star and the National League's MVP in 1957, the year he hit 44 home runs and drove in 137 runs. He also set the National League record for most home runs in a season, a mark he would hold for 33 years. Aaron was the first black player to hit 300 home runs in a season, a mark that would eventually be broken by Willie Mays.

Aaron was a five-time Gold Glove winner and a two-time World Series champion. He was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1982, the first African American to be so honored. His number 44 was retired by the Milwaukee Brewers in 1974, making him the first black player to have his number retired by a major league team.

Aaron was a man of great philanthropy, and he used his platform to promote education and health care. He was a mentor to many young athletes, and he was a voice for social justice. His legacy will live on in the hearts of fans and athletes everywhere.
Adelaide quarantine no different to Melbourne: Thiem

Some of those isolating in Adelaide, with videos showing them walking around in their rooms yesterday.

"It’s a privilege to be here in Adelaide. But it’s not that huge of an advantage," the Austrian told Adelaide radio station Mix 102.3.

"We got the same amount of practice time as the guys in Melbourne. It’s just not that big of an advantage," he added.

"There are no major differences between the locations. It’s just the same as it was in Melbourne."

Japan, IOC firm on Olympics will not be scrapped

The Australian government has been forced to apologise over its comments that the Olympic Games in Tokyo should be cancelled.

The Games were due to start next month but have been postponed until July 2021 due to the coronavirus pandemic.

Several nations, including the United States, have urged the IOC to cancel the Games entirely.

But IOC president Thomas Bach has said that the Games will go ahead as planned.

Bach said: “The Olympic Games are not about numbers, they are about values. They are about unity, they are about joy, they are about diversity. And these values are what the world needs now.”

He added: “I can assure you that there will be no fans in the stadium, but there will be fans around the world watching on TV.”

The Australian government had previously said that it was “absolutely impossible” for the Games to go ahead.

Mathews built crucial partnerships, including a 117-run stand for the fourth wicket with skipper Dinesh Chandika who made 52.

Humbled in Adelaide, where they were shot out for a second innings low of 56, an injury-ruined India showed little in Melbourne before completing a series whitewash last December.

“Even though we have a good team, we gave it a try tomorrow. If it is this hot tomorrow, have a good day,” Mathews said.

We don’t have a lot of good scores in the third innings. We were aware of that because we were bowled out for 56 today, Mathews said.

Mathews reached his 11th Test hundred, and third against England, with a single off Bow.

He put up 14 with Bow, holding out after England took the new ball in the 40th over.

“Mathews has been a thorn in our side all day,” Bow said.

Can’t make a run without hitting a four, that person is out, Bow said.

Mathews took full advantage of the period of rest to boost the West Indies scores.

Rovman Powell hit 41 off 66 deliveries, and Kyle Mayers, the highest scorer of the series with 71, was yet to be out.

He put on 36 with Dickwella, holding out for the third wicket.

Perera was caught at first slip by England bowler Anderson, bringing an end to the stand.

Three wickets were added before the next Ashes Test will start on Thursday.
