Lance Mintz scored a spectacular double the same night he equalled the record for fastest hat-trick in the history of Formula 1. Mintz got three goals in just four minutes of the Spanish Grand Prix.Germany's Sebastian Vettel, who had scored a record three wins in a row in recent weeks, equalled the record with Mintz. Vettel, who had been leading the race since the second lap, scored his third goal of the weekend in the final lap, finishing with a record 53 laps in 1 minute 30.303 seconds. Mintz, who has scored 12 goals in his last six games, equalled the record with Mintz's first goal of the season, which came on the 12th of March. Mintz started the match by scoring a goal from the penalty spot, followed by another goal in the 30th minute from a free kick. Mintz's performance in the Spanish Grand Prix is a testament to his ability to score goals consistently. His record-breaking performance in this match is a testament to his dedication and hard work, and it's no wonder he's now a household name in Formula 1.

Ireland flanker CJ Stander yesterday surprisingly announced that he would retire from rugby at the end of the season, just days before the start of the Six Nations cup.

The 32-year-old Irishman from Cork, who made his Ireland debut against Wales 10 years ago and switched to club rugby with Stade Francais Paris in France last year, revealed his decision on social media.

"It’s not easy for me to make this announcement," he said.

"I’ve been seriously considering my future in rugby over the past couple of weeks."

"I want to thank everyone who has supported me and given me the opportunity to play in Ireland and France. I’ve been fortunate to have had a long and successful career."

The Stander family, who were present at the announcement, welcomed the decision but said that the final decision was up to the player himself.

Majoros heads to the Olympics with win over Lambiet

It’s a dream come true. Before I came here, it was a difficult period, because I was injured and couldn’t practise a lot and my start in the event was really in danger.

Hungary’s Sarena Majoros qualified for the 2021 Olympics in Table Tennis with a 13-11, 11-7, 11-4, 11-6, 11-3 victory over Belgium’s Viafa Nono in the World Squash Qualifications Tournament yesterday. Majoros, 21, of the Hungarian Table Tennis Federation, defeated Nono in five games to qualify for the 2021 Tokyo Olympics.

Meeting in the men’s singles knockout round, Majoros and Nono played out a tight match that lasted over an hour. Majoros headed to five game points before going on the tie as Kou successfully saved two proved to be the most dramatic of all. Fazed by the prospect, game six started with Nono leading 8-11, 11-8) victory over Belgium’s Kunci in the final. Jancarik came up against a man who was not really focused, “said Majoros.

But Jancarik kept his cool, his footing, winning three of the four games. His place on the Olympic Games following the final point, Majoros commented. “I can’t believe it. We played a difficult match and couldn’t practise a lot and my start in the event was really in danger. This was my dream and I am happy that I could play.”

After the match, Jancarik, who is one of the European continent’s finest defenders, said, “It is amazing. “He said. “One of the best players in the world and he played really well in the final. I just went out there to win and I did what I could to win. I am happy to qualify for the Olympics.”

Jancarik has also been in fine form, leading the World Squash tour. He recently won the non-Belgian Open and two of the biggest events in the world, the World Squash Championships and the British Open.

“It’s a dream come true. Before I came here, it was a difficult period, because I was injured and couldn’t practise a lot and my start in the event was really in danger.” said Majoros.
