England's Liam Livingstone aims for Test call after white-ball exploits

Liam Livingstone's growing reputation may have been built on the dynamos, where he hit 30 or more in each innings in the T20 World Cup, but as he is in the “prime of our sport” Livingstone has a big challenge to face in the upcoming Test against India.

Livingstone, who led England to a six-wicket win over Sri Lanka in the third ODI, said on Thursday that he would be ready to play all three formats if given the opportunity.

LIVERPOOL IN LONDON WITH SAHAB AL-DEEN KOOPMEIN

Premier League: Liverpool have opened talks with forward Mohamed Salah over a new contract, with the Egyptian international set to join the club in January. Salah, who joined Liverpool from Serie A club Roma in 2018, has scored 45 goals in 116 appearances for the club. The club’s current contract expires in 2024, which opens the door for Salah to negotiate a new deal. The club’s hierarchy is determined to keep Salah at Anfield and has already started discussions over the new contract. The forward was one of the key players in the team’s success and is expected to remain with the club for the foreseeable future.

NOT MY JOB TO CONVINCE PLAYERS... Nuno

After a 2-0 defeat to newly-promoted Genoa, Inter Milan manager Andrea Simeone responded to a question about the situation with Romelu Lukaku and Achraf Hakimi, who have been linked with a move away from the club. "They have the right to make their own decisions," Simeone said. "But as a coach, my job is to focus on the players who are with us." The coach was also asked about their plans for the upcoming season. "We are preparing for the new season with the players we have," he said. "We will try to build a strong team that can compete at the highest level." The club has already made some transfers and is expected to make more before the transfer window closes.

ROMA IN A DIFFERENT KIND OF CHALLENGE: Mourinho

AS Roma coach Jose Mourinho said the challenge that awaits him this season is different to the one he faced when he was in charge of Manchester United. "When I was in Manchester United, the pressure was always on," Mourinho said. "But here in Rome, the expectations are much lower. We are a team that hasn’t won in a long time, and we need to build something new. We need to work hard and be patient." Mourinho has been appointed as the new manager of Roma and is expected to lead the team to a new era of success.

INTER MILAN BLOWN OUT BY GENOA

Inter Milan lost 2-0 to Genoa in a match that was marred by some bad refereeing decisions. The home side had the better of the first half but went in at half-time without scoring. In the second half, Genoa took control and scored twice to easily defeat Inter. The result is a blow to Inter’s title aspirations and puts pressure on coach Luciano Spalletti, who is in his first season at the helm.

Freiburg pull off 2-1 win over Dortmund, Wolfsburg go top

-COMMUNITY

Dortmund were left to rue a missed chance to go top of the Bundesliga after a 2-1 defeat to Freiburg. The home side took the lead through a penalty scored by Robin Himmelmann, but Freiburg equalised through a goal from Maximilian Philipp. In the second half, Freiburg scored again through a goal from Ömer Toprak, who headed in a cross from Tom Starke. Freiburg’s victory means they are now one point clear of Dortmund, who remain second in the table.

Celtic hit St Mirren for six

-AFP

Celtic continued their impressive form in the Scottish Premiership with a 6-0 win over St Mirren. The home side took the lead through a goal from Leigh Griffiths, who had scored earlier in the match. In the second half, Celtic scored four more goals through a goal from Callum McGregor, a header from Greg Halford, a goal from Stuart Armstrong, and a strike from Stuart Armstrong. The result moves Celtic to the top of the table with 15 points from four games. St Mirren, on the other hand, remain in 11th place with three points from four games.

Dundee 2-0 Inverness

-Daily Record

Dundee continued their impressive form in the Championship with a 2-0 win over Inverness. The home side took the lead through a goal from Garry Wood, who headed in a cross from Keiron Meekings. In the second half, Dundee scored again through a goal from Kevin Nisbet, who had earlier missed a penalty. The result moves Dundee to the top of the table with 15 points from four games. Inverness, on the other hand, remain in 12th place with three points from four games.
