Rout's latest century adds to India's agony in third Test

England's players and the match president seek to dispel the gloom of another day that saw India's top four make a fifty. England's bowlers continued their attack on India's batsmen, who were left reeling on 276-8 at the end of the day's play.

Sibley, got off the mark with a cover drive. England dropped the struggling Dom Bess, who finished the day unbeaten on 26, as they looked to build on their lead of 135-1.

England now 135-1. And on a day when England prevailed, the home side were left in the shade by their visitors.

Wickets fell at regular intervals, with India losing eight wickets for 155 runs in their second innings.
