Wolfsburg down Leipzig to regain top spot

Wolfsburg restored their place at the Bundesliga summit with a 1-0 victory over Leipzig on Saturday, sending the two-time defending champions back to the top of the table.

The hosts were reduced to ten men early on when Leonardo Bittencourt was shown a straight red card for a second bookable offence.

Despite the numerical disadvantage, Wolfsburg were largely untroubled and controlled the game from the outset.

They finally broke the deadlock in the 52nd minute when Robin Knoche’s powerful header found its way into the back of the net.
