Kinglauz Osaka for stand on mental health, racial issues

EVERYONE LOVES YOU GUYS. YOU LISTEN TO US AND I THINK IT'S GREAT WHEN YOU TALK AND TALK ABOUT YOUR FEELINGS. KIDS NEED THAT

Osaka withdrew from the US Open last month after being threatened with expulsion for refusing to do photo duties, which she said she took as a kid and a woman.

The 23-year-old, a four-times Grand Slam singles title holder, said the Grand Slam got underway when a member of her team tested positive for Cov-19 this month, having also had to work through her own feelings of injustice at all of it, like: 'Why now?' sort of thing.

"It was a combination of feeling quite ill and mentally."

"Every time I go to any place now I have to talk about mental health. Why? Because you guys talked about it. That's fantastic, you guys."

The 23-year-old Osaka is the epitome of the Black Lives Matter campaign as she continues her campaign for gender equality in tennis.

'Everyone loves you guys. They listen to you guys, and I think it's great when you talk and talk about your mental health, kids need that,' Kinglauz, a leading figure in the campaign for gender equality in tennis.

Australia cricket in a ‘better place’ after talks: Langer

SPORT

ALL WE GOT OFF OUR CHESTS! I THINK WE ARE ALL IN A BETTER PLACE NOW.

Elated coach Justin Langer says the Australian cricket team is in a “better place” after a series of on-field and off-field issues, as confirmed by some senior players following a recent team meeting and leadership reshuffle.

Langer, who has led the team for the past year, says the recent meetings have been positive and that the team is ready to move forward.

He also praised the players for their efforts in recent matches, including the Test series against Sri Lanka.

“Things are in a better place now,” Langer said.

“People are happy, they’re getting along and we’re all on the same page.”

The team’s recent performances have been encouraging, with victories in the last two Tests against Sri Lanka.

“With Sri Lanka we stood up to them and showed our mettle,” Langer said.

“We’re in a better place now and we’re looking forward to what lies ahead.”

The team will now focus on their upcoming matches against New Zealand, which will be played in Adelaide and Sydney.

“I think we’re better placed for the upcoming series against New Zealand,” Langer said.

“With the recent improvements, we’re ready to take on the Blue Jays.”

India’s Sundar ruled out of IPL with finger injury

India’s pace bowling all-rounder Washington Sundar has been ruled out of the Indian Premier League (IPL) due to a finger injury.

Sundar, who was ruled out of the West Indies tour earlier this year, has sustained a finger injury during a practice match in the UAE.

“He is in pain and has not been able to bowl,” the BCCI said.

Sundar’s injury is a setback for India’s bowling attack, which is already missing the services of Jasprit Bumrah and Mohammed Siraj.

Cantlay edges DeChambeau in epic playoff

Patrick Cantlay has edged out Matthew DeChambeau in the most dramatic of fashion to win the BMW Championship, the first leg of the PGA Tour’s FedEx Cup playoffs.

The two players were level after regulation, and the match went to the first extra hole, where Cantlay made a clutch 10-foot putt to secure the victory.

Cantlay’s win has put him in pole position for the season-long FedEx Cup playoff series.

Focus on Pakistan cricket after Covid-19

Pakistan cricket has been in the spotlight after a number of high-profile players tested positive for Covid-19.

The national team is set to depart for England next week, and will be followed by the Pakistan women’s team.

“This is a positive step for Pakistan cricket,” said coach Waqar Younis.

The team is expected to perform well, and will be led by experienced captain Babar Azam.

Pakistani players receive $100 for each victory

Pakistani players have been rewarded with a $100 bonus for each victory in the Pakistan Women’s Cricket League.

The bonus is intended to boost morale and motivation among the players.

“Every victory is a stepping stone towards success,” said Pakistan Women’s Cricket Federation president Arshad Khan.

The bonus will be paid out to each player and coach after each match.
